Comments Report

What contributed most to your learning in this course?

- Instructor video lectures.
- The discussion board questions gave me the chance to apply the concepts we were learning.
- Marcus was an amazing professor! His lecture videos were great!
- The video lectures and discussions
- All materials that were used during the course, taught me a lot of things. Professor we're clear in his lectures, and it was easy to understand.
- Watching the lectures and videos given.
- His video recorded lectures for each week were amazing
- That he was able to communicate and reply fast through emails.
- video lectures
- lecture videos
- Professor Scauso's charismatic presence in his Youtube lectures were key to facilitating my learning in this course. He is great with communication and engaging with the material in a way that is easy to grasp for his students. He is clearly dedicated to the overall growth of the student and having them enjoy the process of learning rather than dread or be scared of it.
- Instructor taught material very well. His assignments were always useful.
- class lectures and his ability to be available for students.
- The online lectures
- He cares very much for his students so he's always offering different resources or ways to think about the topic at hand.
- Because it a online based professor Scauso always tried to engage with students. He did online video lectures which made the class easy to follow. I found IST100 an easy course because majority of my courses are 300 and above. For a lower division class IST 100 was good good. He gave us good amount of readings and assignments. At times he would through in extra credit in his lectures to make sure people were watching them. Overall, great professor.

Did anything interfere with your learning in this course? If so, explain.

- Nothing interfered.
- No
- None
- no
- Some of the videos that weren't the lecture kind of made me doze off. I feel like not all of them were necessary or helped me learn more.
- Nada.
- No
- No.
- No not really. Professor Scauso was always there in case we wanted to meet in person with him. He would always email us if anyone wanted to set up an appointment to meet on campus.

What suggestions or recommendations do you think would help your instructor prepare to teach this course again?

- The only suggestion would be to skip the online video introductions, as well as anything that requires a student to record themselves and post online. Writing an introduction or a project can be just as thorough and insightful, and you'll probably get more students to participate. I know many students who fear posting anything personal online, no matter how "secure" it might be. Those are just a few of my thoughts. Either way, great class, i'm enjoying it very much.
- I believe the course was very well organized that I wouldn't change anything.
- I think the instructor did great in this course I would recommend to continue giving feedback on discussions and quizzes
- Professor did an excellent job in this course. He does everything great, there is no any suggestions.
- N/A
- I think he did an amazing job with teaching this course online, by far the best instructed online course I have taken.
- Be a bit more clear on what you want in the discussions and exam questions.
- it's all good
- Nada - KEEP THIS GUY :)
- none
- More videos would not hurt.
- I appreciate this instructor and feel he's doing a great job as is.
- Nothing.
