

commonwealth

> > > autism

Job Opportunity

Behavior Analyst- Greater Lynchburg Area & Wytheville Area

Commonwealth Autism is looking for Board Certified Behavior Analysts who like to look at the BIG PICTURE! We use Organizational Behavior Management (OBM) strategies to help build capacity of the autism and developmental disability service provider network! These unique positions provide BCBAs variety in dynamic work settings and gives people an opportunity to make a larger impact in service systems.

What You Do

- Participate in on-going needs assessment/ strategic planning process with partners and supervisors
- Deliver consultation training, technical assistance, & coaching to service providers
- Assist with the collection of program performance data to assess Commonwealth Autism's Outcome Measurement Initiatives
- Assist with the collection of program performance data to assess Commonwealth Autism's Outcome Measurement Initiatives

What You Get

- Salary: Up to $60,000 based on experience
- Paid time off & paid holidays
- Great medical & dental insurance!
- Generous 401K (3% Safe Harbor match & 4% sharing) after vesting period
- 100% paid short & long-term disability insurance
- 100% life insurance policy
- Experience implementing OBM strategies in service systems
- Internal and external professional development opportunities

What You Need

- Master's Degree, Board Certification in Applied Behavior Analysis, VA State licensure as an LBA
- 3 years of experience providing support within a coaching model and utilizing behavior skills training.
- 5 years of experience working with persons with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families
- Willingness to engage in behaviors that impact change at the systems level
- Experience providing technical assistance within a coaching model