

Dr. Carrie Verkuilen

Dr. Carrie Verkuilen is originally from Appleton, Wisconsin. She earned her Doctorate from Palmer College of Chiropractic in Davenport, Iowa in 1999. Since graduating, she has completed her certification in nutritional counseling. Her goal is to be able to help people achieve health and wellness through a combination of chiropractic and nutrition. Dr. Carrie has been practicing in Shawano since 2003 and has enjoyed her years at her office, Verkuilen Chiropractic & Wellness Center. She is committed to patient education and community service.

In addition to the curriculum at Palmer Chiropractic College, Dr. Carrie has had advanced training in the diagnosis, treatment, and prevention of sports-related injuries. She had obtained a Rehabilitation Certificate in 2009 from NorthWestern Health Science. Dr. Carrie is eager to treat patients of all ages in order to encourage optimal health within the entire family. Her office has been awarded “Best of Wolf River Region” for her work as a chiropractor in Shawano for 3 consecutive years. Recently she has been awarded Shawano Country Chamber of Commerce “2013 Small Business of the Year”.

In her spare time, Dr. Carrie enjoys spending time with her husband, Mark, and son, William. She has been an active member of Shawano, in organizations such as Rotary, Junior Achievement and the Shawano Country Chamber. Dr. Carrie has served as President of Shawano Country Chamber Board in 2010 and is still an active member.

Education:

- Bachelor of Science
- Doctor of Chiropractic, Palmer College of Chiropractic, Davenport, Iowa ~ 1999
- Nutritional Counseling Certification, Wisconsin ~ 2007
- Rehabilitation Certification ~ 2009

Licensure & Associations:

- Licensed Doctor of Chiropractic, Wisconsin ~ 1999-Present
- Member of the Wisconsin Chiropractic Association (WCA)
- Member of Rotary Club
- Executive Board Member of Shawano Country Chamber ~ 2009-Present