SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA TRIBAL BAR ASSOCIATION
APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

To be eligible to practice law before the Intertribal Court of Southern California, an attorney must be admitted to the Southern California Tribal Bar Association.

Eligibility and Application Requirements

To be eligible for admission to the Southern California Tribal Bar Association, an attorney must:

- Be a member in good standing of any state or tribal bar with no disciplinary proceedings pending
- Conform to the standards of conduct promulgated by the American Bar Association in the performance of his or her professional duties
- Be knowledgeable of applicable federal, state, and tribal law as well as the Intertribal Court of Southern California Code of Civil Procedure and Rules of Court
- Be of high moral character as determined by the Chief Judge of the Intertribal Court of Southern California
- Consent to review of his or her attorney's fees for reasonableness by the Chief Judge of the Intertribal Court of Southern California
- Understand that should he or she be found in contempt of court by a judge of the Intertribal Court of Southern California, the judge may levy a fine of up to $500.00 per incident and failure to pay the fine within 20 days of issuance will disqualify him or her from membership in the Southern California Tribal Bar Association
- Agree to pay a membership renewal fee of $200.00 by January 1 of each year (fees not received by February 1 will be increased to $250.00)

An attorney seeking admission to the Southern California Tribal Bar Association must submit:

- A completed application for admission
- A non-refundable application fee of $200.00
- Proof of membership in any state or tribal bar
- Proof of malpractice insurance
- A letter of recommendation from an attorney member in good standing of any state or tribal bar
