

Blood, Flow Down

William Flanders

1. There I was at the gate _____ they call beau - ti - ful. _____ An old lame
2. Two men came down for prayers _____ in the af - ter-noon. _____ And I 3. Well, my brain told me "No! _____ he's just mock-ing you." _____ But my beg - gar full of hate and self-dis - gust. _____ Con - ning lay there on the stairs in mis - er - y. _____ One of them heart was yearn - ing so I did - n't hear. _____ And _____ the coins from the rich _____ and re - spect - a - ble. _____ Not a said, "Not a coin _____ can I give to you. _____ But in next thing I knew, _____ I was ten feet tall. _____ I was one of them I'd ev - er trust. _____ Then flow Je - sus' name, rise, stand by me." _____ stand - ing a - lone with - out fear." _____

down. Blood, flow down to my toes. _____ A man must stand or he dies, this he knows.