October 2013 President's Message

At the Fall Ceremonial in Winnipeg

There was a lot to do at this year's ceremonial. The whole weekend was filled with activities. One of our newest members, Noble Jeff Geddert, journeyed to Winnipeg to go through the all-day event on the Friday. He said it was quite the experience and thoroughly enjoyed the event. We capped off the day at the "Rose and Thistle Pub Fun Night" and were entertained by a number of skits put on by the clown unit and others. The most moving part of the event was the introduction of Jacquie and Zachary Pylychuk as the guest speakers. They spoke during the day to those that attended the ceremonial and again to the crowd in the evening and were well received by the Nobles and Ladies present. The Ladies were entertained on the Saturday with the new Ladies going to an orientation session in the morning and all attending a fashion show brunch. In the evening at the "Starry, Starry Night Ball" Noble Ed Carr and myself, on behalf of the Lakehead Shrine Club, presented Illustrious Sir Andrew Skene with a cheque for over $9000 for this year's summer fundraising efforts (which also included some of the Circus Daddy/Mom funds) for the Hospital Transportation Fund.

We did have the opportunity to meet with the circus chairman to discuss the upcoming circus and the new advertising that we implemented this year. I also met with the Membership Chairman and discussed new ways of charting members that would be helpful to the clubs. He is going to take those suggestions to the Imperial Shrine to enhance the membership database.

Masonic Foundation Breakfast

The Masonic Foundation will hold their Monthly Breakfast at Dease Street on October 19, 2013, from 9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. Come out and eat until you're full and enjoy visiting with fellow Nobles and Masonic brethren.
