Concerns:

A few of you voiced concerns you could not read the newsletter because it was too small? I suggest you open it by attachment, view, print or go to web page and bring it up. As from previous attempts to send items that many of you are unable to open some Doc. formats, so I choose to print the letter, scan & share as a photo attachment. I assure you it comes in as full 8x10 page. Next, try checking your computer settings. A 'pdf format' might be in our future. Stay tuned. ☺

"OLD" IS WHEN.....

..... Your friends compliment you on your new alligator shoes, and you're barefoot.

..... A sexy babe catches your fancy and your pacemaker opens the garage door.

..... Going bra-less pulls all the wrinkles out of your face.

..... You don't care where your spouse goes, just as long as you don't have to go along.

..... You are cautioned to slow down by the doctor instead of by the police.

Highlight a Classmate: I had been thinking it would be nice to highlight a classmate the newsletter! So when I received a note from Judi (Cummings) Swink, I decided Jim would be our first. Now to continue this feature I will need your help, please ideas and info!!! Photos would be nice too! (or I will use HS Photo) The 'Nominee' does not have to be an award winner.

"You are all Stars in our Eyes...You are one of us!"
So who do we highlight next?

Our First Star is 'James Michael Hardy' Congratulations Jim!

Jim had no prior knowledge of this honor....
He will see it when you do! HA!

"Hi Jim!"

'Classmate Highlight'

James Michael Hardy

I recently received a brief E-mail from Judi saying:
"When visiting Caralee Owens Mueller I saw a write up in USA today that mentions Jim Hardy as a source, of course, on golf courses."

Judi went on with the offer to send the article or fax it to me but I was too impatient...I went online and put in, 'USA Today: Jim Hardy Article'. My search gave several listings, his site: <http://www.jimhardygolf.com/> and lots more, all interesting reading for golfers, but most interesting I found a Huge Honor has been bestowed on our friend & classmate.

A continued search yielded Jim receiving:
'2007 PGA National Teacher of the Year Award'

I am sure you will want to see this presentation. Jim mentions his beginnings & his mentor Harold Hoffman and how his path & goals had changed.

View the Award Presentation:

More, 'All About Jim' and access to other sites:
<http://www.jimhardygolf.com/about.htm>

One more article caught my eye in Golf Digest '07: 'America's 50 greatest Teachers' see article:
http://www.golfdigest.com/instruction/2007/08/50greatest\_hardy

Lastly most of you know Jim also has authored the book: 'Plain Truth for Golfers' & Set of 3 DVDs by the same name, of which 'Golf Pro Peter Jacobsen' says: "The Plain Truth for Golfers is simple, easy to understand and works for ALL golfers, from beginner to Tour Pro". There are many sites with information and opportunities to buy them.

I would encourage you to send Jim a note via Snail or E-mail with remembrances & congratulations:

Kudos Jim, You make us Proud! ☺

Notes: Judi (Cummings) Swink shares:

In April I took an Inter-costal Waterway Elderhostel trip with a friend. We traveled by small cruise ship from Charleston to Jacksonville. The tour included antebellum homes, fishing villages, barrier islands and saltwater marshes. My favorite sites were Magnolia plantation outside of Savannah with its many alligators and enchanting Cumberland Island famous for the John Kennedy Jr. wedding.

From Jacksonville I motored to Vero Beach, Florida, a pleasant beach community which is now the home of Caralee Owens Mueller. She's a recent transplant from Tucson and is enjoying being closer to her son Derek, his wife and two darling twin girl grandchildren. We did seafood by the ocean, seaside walks and boutique shopping while sharing memories and catching up on life as 'Seniors in our 60's' Rather Than 'Seniors in the 60's'. ☺
