MusikHaus is happy to partner with Ainsworth to provide quality music classes after school on-site at Ainsworth! We help students improve their musicianship via singing, rhythm, playing together, and supporting each other. After each session of fun group lessons, students will perform a concert for friends and family!

Our philosophy is to have fun while building a strong foundation, based in music theory, historical understanding and active participation. Students will gain confidence for years to come. Sign up today!

The classes will be taught by a highly-qualified professional teaching staff led by Chris Gabriel, Director of Musikhaus.
