Today's Gospel reveals Christ as the Suffering Messiah. The message is similar to that of last week in that once again we need to allow ourselves to be fully open to truly see who Jesus really is and to truly hear his voice. We cannot have selective seeing and hearing. Jesus is very clear to Peter and the other disciples and to us – yes, he is the Christ, but at the same time he is the Christ who is destined to suffer. Not only that, but his followers must be prepared to endure suffering also. For some, this means actual persecution in parts of the world such as the Middle East. For others, it may mean enduring another kind of cross: illness, disability, addiction, bereavement, loneliness, loss of employment, and so on. Let us walk as true disciples of the Lord Jesus, carrying our daily crosses with fidelity and perseverance. Such commitment will help shape our path to eternal life.

For Whoever Wants To Save His Life Will Lose It,
But Whoever Loses His Life For Me And For The Gospel Will Save It.

FEAST OF SAINT MATTHEW, APOSTLE, EVANGELIST
(September 21):

The apostle Matthew has two names in the Gospels: Matthew and Levi. It is commonly held that his name was Levi until Jesus called him to be a disciple; then he was called Matthew which, in Aramaic, means 'gift of God'. The Gospel bearing his name was composed around the year 85. In this Gospel, Jesus is shown as the fulfillment of God's Old Testament promises of a Messiah. Tradition holds that, after the Resurrection, Matthew preached in Ethiopia where he was martyred. Known as a tax collector, Matthew is a patron of customs officers and accountants.

SEPTEMBER 16 - MEMORIAL OF SAINT CORNELIUS, POPE, AND SAINT CYPRIAN, BISHOP, MARTYRS:

Saints Cornelius and Cyprian were friends and allies. Cornelius was elected Pope during the Decian persecution (250-251). In 253, under renewed persecution, he was arrested and banished. He died in exile the same year. Cyprian of Carthage was a convert to Christianity and became a Priest shortly after his conversion. In 249 he became a Bishop. When the Decian persecution began, he went into hiding and supported his flock by letter. Later he was arrested, banished, and condemned to death, showing great faith and courage in the face of martyrdom.

September 17 - Memorial of Saint Robert Bellarmine, Bishop, Doctor: Robert entered the Jesuits in 1560, was ordained in 1570, appointed Cardinal in 1599, and named Archbishop of Capua in 1602. His most famous work is his three-volume Disputations on the Controversies of the Christian Faith (1586-1593), which was a defence of Catholicism and was appreciated because of its balanced and reasonable presentation. Robert was also reviser of the Latin Vulgate Bible, advisor to Galileo, author of two catechisms, director of the Roman College, leader in the Catholic Reformation, head of the Vatican library, and theological consultant to the Holy See. He died in 1621, was canonized in 1930, and declared a Doctor of the Church in 1931. He is a patron of catechists and catechumens.

September 19 - MEMORIAL OF SAINT JANUARIUS, BISHOP, MARTYR: Januarius' fame is centered on a relic, said to contain his blood, which is kept in the Cathedral at Naples. Since the fifteenth century, the flask containing the blood has attracted attention. Eighteen times a year, the solid mass in the vial becomes liquefied, sometimes seeming to bubble and froth. The relic is an object of devotion, and the activity is said to be miraculous. No natural explanation has been found for this phenomenon.

ANNUAL FLOWER SERVICE
At All Saints Cemetery
Tuesday, September 10th.

SEPTEMBER 20 - MEMORIAL OF SAINT ANDREW KIM TAE-GŌN, PRIEST, PAUL CHONG HA-SANG, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS:

In the early 1600's, Christian communities began to flourish in Korea under the leadership of lay people. In 1836, missionaries from France secretly entered the country. The Christian communities began to encounter hostility and, during the persecutions of the mid-19th century, over 10,000 Christians were killed. Andrew Kim, the first Korean priest, was one of these, and Paul Chong, a seminarian and catechist, was one of the many lay people who suffered. These and 101 other Korean martyrs (clergy and lay, young and old) were canonized in 1984.
