Thank you all so much for all your friendship, love, fellowship, and support over the years to our mom. She treasured all of you and felt surrounded by love. Thank you for being her Kentucky family. I loved hearing so many wonderful stories and remembrances at her funeral. Thank you too, for the luncheon that the parishioners provided. It was a lovely way to gather and remember her,

Lisa (Barb Shipley's daughter)

“Peter said, ‘Rabbi, it is good that we are here!
 Let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah”

Jesus, with Peter, James and John, made the strenuous climb to the top of Mount Tabor, a craggy, cone shaped mountain. To the southwest across the lush Jezreel Valley is Meggido, where Revelation prophesies Armageddon, the final battle between good and evil. To the north are Nazareth where Mary consented to be the Mother of the Messiah; and Cana, where Mary tells the servants to “Do whatever he tells you.” In this context Jesus appears totally different, standing with Moses the “Great Lawgiver” and Elijah, the “Great Prophet. He reveals his mission as Messiah and the consequences he will suffer. Peter, filled with amazement and confusion, proposes to stay in the safety and comfort on top of the mountain. Jesus leads them off of the mountain to help him fulfill his mission. We may never visit the top of Mount Tabor, but Jesus challenges us to step out of our comfort zone and help him fulfill his mission. Lent is a time to recall and reflect on the life and mission of Jesus, and to choose to follow and imitate him.

 Bishop William F. Medley is joining with the USCCB in encouraging parishioners to participate in a national Catholic "call-in day" to Congress on Monday, February 26, 2018. This is in support of DREAMERS, young people brought to America by their parents as children through no fault of their own. They may face deportation as soon as March 6. Sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable person is a crime according to both state and Church law, and there is help and healing possible. To report to civil authorities, call local law enforcement at (270) 928-2122 or the Kentucky Child Abuse Hotline (toll-free: 1-877-KYSAFE1; 1-877-597-2331). To report abuse by Church personnel (paid or unpaid), either past or present, please call the confidential phone line of the Pastoral Assistance Coordinator at 270-852-8380. A full explanation of the Diocese’s response to sexual abuse concerns can be found in the revised sexual abuse policy, effective July 1, 2014, which can be found (e.g. in the back of church, on the parish bulletin board, in the book rack, in the parish office and also on the Diocesan web site (www.rcdok.org/safe)).
