It was a beautiful Fall Saturday but the scores didn't necessarily go low. Dave Ellis and Mike Rolph tie with Net 70, but the most interesting score belongs to Fitz who takes home 2nd place money. Fitz had 2 tough holes on the F9 but then his attack wedge caught fire on the back as he records a "Des", for a 21 shot improvement over the F9.

Both partners matches were tight throughout with Connors/Rismanchi holding off Ellis/Yusko +2 and Jeffries/Rinaldi holding on over Cavallo/Korleski +1. Connors/Rismanchi were up +6 after 3 holes but Ellis/Yusko fought back to even the match after 11, got the lead back to 4 after 16 and held on, losing 2 on 17, then halving 18.

In the other match, Jeffries/Rinaldi took a +1 lead on 17 following a birdie by Mike and then the group halved 18. Congrats to both partner teams for making it to the championship.
