CRIMINAL HISTORY INQUIRY

Many people with criminal records can still get benefits.

HAVE YOU EVER:

- been sentenced for a felony or a misdemeanor offense?
- been charged criminal fines, or costs, or ordered to make restitution related to a criminal conviction?
- been convicted of a felony offense involving a controlled substance?
- been convicted of fraudulent misrepresentation of residence in order to receive cash or medical assistance, food stamps, or Supplemental Security Income in two or more states?
- been place on probation or parole?
- been issued a summons or a warrant to appear as a defendant at a criminal court proceeding?
- fled to avoid prosecution, or custody, or confinement following a conviction for a felony?

If you answered no to all the above – STOP, no further information is necessary; sign the certification below.

If you answered yes to any of the above, we need to know more to see if you are eligible for benefits.
