Prayer

O God, as we worship, make yourself known to us and to those for whom we pray. If we have doubts, help us to find your presence in the ache of our uncertainty. If we worry or are in some pain, help us to sense that you can always heal and be present. If we have joy, help us to share it. In this tumultuous time, remind us that you are never far away and we are always held in your arms. And whisper to us again “there is nothing in heaven or on Earth that can separate us from your love”. Amen (Jann Weaver)

Cynthia Asai

Let us join together in the prayer that Jesus taught us:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Song How Great Thou Art Alan Jackson

Scripture Reading: Romans 8: 26-28, 35, 37-39 (selected)

Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit herself interceded for us with sighs too deep for words. And God who searches our hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the desire of God.

We know that in everything God works for good with us and we are called with purpose. Who shall separate us from the love of God? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? No! In all these things we are more than victors through God who loves us. For I am sure that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creations, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus.

Benediction Prayer:

Go forth from this time, with your heads held high and your hearts filled with love. Each one of us is loved endlessly by God. No matter what happens, remember that nothing can ever separate us from the love of God. Create bonds of peace and understanding. This is the day that the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad in it. Amen.
