Don't miss Christmas!

Scripture reading: Lu. 1:26-33  There is a danger in Christmas. We get so wrapped up in the story and busy with the celebration that we miss Christmas. Sound funny? At the very first Christmas, there was a group of people who missed the birth of Jesus. They were so familiar with the story, they missed the real event.
We ought to be c not to miss Christmas.  Why? The angel Gabriel explains in Lu. 1:30-33 why  Christmas is so important.
His Name will be J – save people from sins
He will be g – Emphasis is on this baby
The S of the most high – miracle is Emmanuel
Given the t of His father David – He is a King
He will r over house of Judah - In the future
Of His kingdom, there will be no e one door
Stop telling God you're too busy. Look at the story again and meditate on it. Thank God for His wonderful, priceless gift.
G is life changing! Celebrate Christmas with sacrifice, passion and thankfulness.

our notes he	ere
		 	-
		 	~		_
		i
-			7
					_
		 			_
					_
		 			_
		 		_	_
					_
					_
		 	·		_
			&gt;		_
		 			_
, ×	£				