BUCKET CALF SHOW

Superintendent: Jerry Arthur and Barbara Pfenning

The Bucket Calf Program is a summer project that allows a child to work with smaller animals as they develop an interest in beef cattle. The calf must be bottle fed and cared for throughout the summer; and broke to lead.

Eligibility: This program is designed for youth 9 and under years of age. All calves must be under 6 months of age.

Judging Criteria: Each participant presents his or her calf to the judge individually. The judge interviews the contestant to determine what the child has learned about caring for and raising the calf. The experience rather than animals will be judged. Quality of the calf is not a consideration. Calf should be washed and dried; and may be trimmed (although this will not affect the judging).

Costume Contest: Exhibitors' costume should coordinate/compliment the costume/decoration on the calf.

Award Sponsored by Ross Seed Co.

The Danish Ribbon System will be used. Decision of the judge will be final. Any complaints or disagreements should be put in writing and addressed to the GCFT.
