2.4) Please provide any additional comments you would like to convey to the instructor about YOUR performance in this class.

- I could've done better staying on top of the readings but I took a lot of notes in class.
- I did most of the readings for the class and in most cases it was extremely beneficial to understanding the content. Also, I always wanted to participate and contribute more to the class but was always nervous to because of the student dynamic.
- I really enjoyed the teaching style but point system I think could be set better.

- The 4 question quizzes were kind of difficult because if you got 1 wrong you were already at a C. Less frequent and longer quizzes would be more effective in my opinion.

3. The Professor

3.8) Please provide any additional comments you would like to convey about the professor's teaching:

- By far one of my favorite political science professors! Super understanding, intelligent, helpful, funny and willing to work with students and make sure they can take the most from the class. I also really appreciated how he would ALWAYS check to make sure the class was comfortable and understanding the content as he taught. Summaries were always really beneficial. As a student who was less vocal, I could convey my understanding with just a head nod and I appreciated that. It was the small gestures that mattered. He did pronounce my name wrong the whole semester though :/
- Impossible to reach outside of class. Information about assignments are not clear.
- One of the most passionate teachers I've had at Quinnipiac.
- Prof is SO interesting!! The way he speaks and the way he carries himself is so incredibly engaging. I've never found it easy to pay attention for 50 straight minutes, but Prof managed.
- Professor Scauso is a great professor who has been extremely enthusiastic during the entire semester
- Professor Scauso is the best professor I have had since being at QU. Extremely passionate about the subject material and always makes sure everyone understands, often summarizing the content at the end of class. I got more out of this class than any class I have since being here.
- Professor Scauso made sure we understood the material and took his time to explain and elaborate on points and to let the class lead the discussions as well. He made the classroom a warm and welcoming environment for students to learn about international relations.
- The professor made the class engaging and encouraged questions.
- This is the best professor I've ever had at Quinnipiac
- Very passionate; clear that he enjoyed speaking about this topic
- he really knows his stuff and is super passionate about what he does. its mostly based on discussion so if you dont keep up it leaves you confused, but I never get bored in class so its been really good.
- it was to inclusive where you felt he was worried of what others think the whole class.

4. Class Materials

4.3) Please provide any additional comments you would like to convey relevant to class materials:

- All the materials were really relative and helpful to understand the content. The poststructuralism readings were a bit challenging for me though.
- Book was not necessary
- Class material was always relevant and planned out well.
- I liked the structure of this course- short quiz once every two weeks, and one final presentation and paper
- The quizzes made sure we were on track but weren't stress-inducing.
- The reading quizzes really emphasized comprehension of the reading rather just evaluating if you retained a couple words in your brain. The latter is arguably insulting to me as a student, so I appreciate that Prof did the former.
- Very respectful and open to meeting students needs through communication

5. The Course Overall

5.3) Please discuss any and all strengths and weaknesses related to this course:

- I just wish the teacher understood there are situations you can't control and taking a ton of points away seems harsh.
- I really enjoyed this course!

- The lectures were extremely helpful
- This is an excellent course and Professor Scauso is simply brilliant. Very effective teacher and focus on learning, not grades.
- hard class material wise but the professor was very good.
