Russian Assets Everywhere!

By Steve Bakke  March 15, 2020

Before Trump was elected, there were events going on that led to the Steele Dossier and eventually the Mueller inquiry and an impeachment trial – all to no avail. In fact, those involved in the unjustified investigations have been peeking over their shoulders to see if certain federal investigators are now following them.

That was so much fun that the Democrats are expanding their horizons. We've heard from Hillary Clinton that democrat presidential primary candidate Tulsi Gabbard is a Russian asset. And didn't we hear that Jill Stein (Green Party candidate for president in 2016) was cozy with the Russians? As I recall, Hillary had her hand in that one too. And Bernie Sanders was fingered in a recent "report" as being a Russian sympathizer. Now there are renewed claims by Schiff and Clinton that Trump is once again Putin's Puppet going into the 2020 presidential election.

And who's the founder and beneficiary of this nonsense and craziness? Vladimir Putin has been feeding the frenzy, and democrats took the bait, stirred the pot, and is delivering Putin the prize: rumor, misinformation, infighting, division, chaos, hysteria and chaos. This crafty Russian is achieving his goal of seriously weakening America's unity.
