

License Plate Registration Form

Only Residents (Owners, Occupants & Tenants) registered with the Membership Department will be entered into the system.

Only Vehicles registered to a resident with a State or other Government Issued Registration presented as validation will be entered into the system.

If the vehicles are jointly owned, only one form and one signature are required.

If there are individually owned vehicles within a household, a form is required for each named registered owner. Example: If Mary owns one car and John owns one car, a form is required for Mary and another form for John.

Any Resident with a rental vehicle will need to present a rental agreement with the necessary information as validation to be entered into the system.
