

On July 10, Don Shappelle and the Pickups, a versatile musical group, performed a repertoire of original songs. The influences of blues, folk and rock traditions, mixed with a bit of jazz and ragtime, make up the styling of Don's songs. The Chesapeake Bay, Susquehanna River and the lives of hard-working people everywhere are all part of his music.