2020 BIBLE-READING SCHEDULE

This year, our daily Bible-reading program will take us through the narrative sections of the Bible. Sometimes we can get lost in long sections of law (ie. Leviticus), poetry (ie. Psalms), and doctrine (ie. Romans). But a substantial portion of Scripture is made up of narrative/story, which has a way of keeping our attention, while still conveying God’s message for mankind.

So using this 5-day schedule, we’ll read the real story of real people interacting with a real God across centuries of time. If you grew up in church, many of these will be familiar echoes of your childhood Bible classes, and we hope that re-reading them in the Bible itself will allow them to mean that much more to you than they did back then.

Since this reading plan is full of vivid stories, we pray that it will be a blessing to you and your family. This is a wonderful opportunity to set aside time for family Bible-reading, whereby every member of your household can be blessed by hearing the small episodes that make up the one grand story of Scripture—the story of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.
