Parish Pictorial Directory

It's time for a new, updated Parish Directory for St. Anthony of Padua parish! Instead of setting up individual appointments for everyone to come back for pictures, Ginny Reed will be taking parishioner pictures before and after Sunday Mass. This should be much more convenient for everyone. We will have a form to be completed by each family to ensure we have the latest, correct information for everyone.

Please Note: Pictures will only be taken before or after Sunday Mass during the month of July!

FROM THE PASTOR

July 14, 2019
Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Lk 10:25-37

Dear St Pius X and St Anthony Church,

What do I have to do to get to heaven? This is basically what the scholar asks Jesus in today's gospel. I love how Jesus answers just like a good rabbi, throwing back another question. The return question deepens the searching of the student. It takes patience, but the reward to probing with more questions is the wider application of wisdom. I shared recently in a homily about student class that stayed upset with their teacher because the teacher always answered with another question (What is this: the show Jeopardy or something?) Even once, her students thought they would put an end to it, by asking her, "Why do you always answer with a question?" She said right back, "And what is wrong with a question?" Her method was to allow her students to 'stew' for a minute thinking over possible answers before she offered a solution. But in Jesus' case today, He asks this scholar back two (2) questions! Jesus wants to understand where the questioner is coming from, so He can custom tailor his answer to that student's level of understanding. For example, I bet we have all had that experience of asking a specialist a question and been given such a convoluted answer from them that we thought, "That was gibberish--I knew more before I heard your answer." A rule for Jesus' patient teaching is "Keep it Simple!" An answer can be thorough and concise at the same time. Here's an example of Jesus' sermonizing. Consider this line from his Mount Teaching, "Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy" (Matthew 5:7). Now we are talking! That is simple and straightforward!

So, after being asked how to get to heaven, Jesus asks this questioner back in Luke 10: 26, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?" In other words, "You tell me: What is your approach to reading the Law? What does it prescribe?" Of course, Jesus wants a comprehensive, but also a simple answer. The student does give a concise summary of the Law by quoting Deuteronomy 6:5 and Leviticus 19:18, "Love God above all, and Live with your neighbor treating him/her as you wish to be treated" Normally, at this point, a teacher would say, "That's a wrap. End of class!" BUT, we hear that this smart student is after something more, up to something else! Luke 10:29 says, "Because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" This student has another agenda, not concerned about God's Law of Living in Grace and achieving Heaven. This student is about scoring points, winning and appearing 'justified'. He is a smart one, because until now he was answering correctly 100%. In Luke's telling of this encounter, the student gives this excellent answer. I like to point out that in Matthew's version of similar stories, Jesus delivers this answer himself first on two different occasions (Matthew 19:19 & Matthew 22:37-39). Maybe this student had been in Jesus' classroom before and knew what Jesus would say (which accounts for his bold confidence in pushing questions back on to Jesus for his own self-justification agenda). More than just wanting to look good I think this student is trying to use what Jesus says to justify his prejudice to racially 'bully' or be harsh with some people (I will love my neighbor-my kind-my people, but not those others, them-their kind). So the student wants to classify people as a neighbor or not to support his prejudices. So, who is my neighbor? Only my clan, only my immediate kin, only my country's citizens, only my color or my religion? As always, Jesus delivers the truth, but it is not what the 'smartie' student wanted to hear! Telling the story of the Good Samaritan, Jesus is teaching that my neighbor is whoever needs my help! Jesus doesn't limit and narrow the idea of neighbor, He broadens it to include anyone who is in need, anyone who presents himself to us. And my best neighbor to me turns out to be who I thought was an enemy-A Samaritan! In Jesus' parable, don't count on the 'priest' (Ouch!), don't count on the Levite! The hero neighbor is the outsider Samaritan who doesn't check the ID card of his victim in need. He just helps! Not because the victim's nationality or religion is the preferred one. No, the Good Samaritan neighbor helps because broken ribs and bloody cuts on the man are what call for help. Our labels and prejudices limit our humane care and compassion for others. Like good medical corpsmen, or noble peace officers who provide treatment even to 'enemy wounded' or 'disarmed attackers', the human wounds demand human treatment. So who is my neighbor? Whoever presents themselves to me in need. My neighbor is whoever needs my help. I may want to apply a 'worthiness standard' to my gift to someone based on their 'status', ID or class. But Jesus is simpler than us when He says in Luke 6:33 "If you do good only to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do the same." Jesus goes on in Luke 6:35-36 "Rather, love (even) your enemies and do good to them, and lend expecting nothing back; then your reward will be great and you will be children of the Most High, for God Himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful." For sure, a challenge, but that is what faith loves!

Peace,
Fr Brian
