"Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now."

JOHN 2:10

When Water Becomes Wine

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

For all of us, at one time or another, life seems to run out of wine. We look at our relationships and find ourselves saying, "There's no more wine." It may be a friendship of five years or a marriage of twenty-five years, but, for some, the wine runs out. For others, it is the job that loses its challenge. Or, one day, the foreman gathers everyone to announce that the plant is closing. In a moment, all has turned into vinegar; there is no more wine. For others still, it is when retirement suffocates the future, choking all that once gave meaning.

However, there are also those times when hope is reborn, when we feel "espoused" not only by life but also by God, when the ordinary turns extraordinary—and the water becomes wine. It is the phone call offering a new job after we have collected unemployment checks for months. It is falling in love when we have given up on the notion. It is conceiving a child after years of barren waiting. It is someone who listens, finally, when no one else would. It is at times like these—and many others as well—when we are caught off-balance and trip into God unwittingly, saved from drudgery and redeemed to live a life enriched, when water is turned into wine. It is a deeply felt joy that reveals God's presence. ●

Reflect

Is there an area in your life where you need "new wine"?

Dear Padre,

Is there a year of John? I know we're now in the year of Luke, next year will be the year of Matthew, and the following year will be the year of Mark. Then the cycle starts over with Luke. Why doesn't John have a year?

Matthew, Mark, and Luke, collectively known as the synoptic gospels, are narrative gospels. Together, they tell the story of Jesus of Nazareth. Although in some ways they might be understood synoptically, "the same," each narrative is unique in its emphasis. The Church desires that we hear these narratives and be nourished through the proclamation of the early memories of the Christian community.

John's Gospel, on the other hand, is not primarily a narrative, but is best understood as theological. As such, it is highly dependent on the use of symbolic representations to make the point it intends. For example, "I am the light of the world."

Whoever follows me...will have the light of life" (John 8:12). The interplay between light and darkness illustrates the point. John's Gospel is intended to be experienced and engaged in as "bigger than life," proposing and celebrating Christian themes that are life-giving and inviting. Therefore, we hear John's Gospel when the Church celebrates the mystery of the saving life and resurrection of Jesus. For this reason, the Gospel of John is proclaimed on Good Friday, during the Easter season, and on other major feasts. ●

Bishop McKnight's January prayer intention for our Local Church

For our civic leaders, that they may be guided by wisdom and integrity in their decisions. May they seek the common good, foster unity in our communities, and lead with compassion and justice.

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

I suggest an exercise.... Let us think about that difficult moment in which God let me experience his love.... And let us ask ourselves: with which discrete and loving signs did he let me feel his tenderness? When did I feel the Lord nearer? When did I feel his tenderness and his compassion?

Fidelity: being faithful to promises and commitments
Have you ever made a promise? Was it hard to keep?

Saint of the Week: St. Cecilia

St. Cecilia promised to give her life to God. Her parents gave her in marriage to a pagan named Valerian. On their wedding night, she sang prayers to God in her heart and told her husband that an angel defended her. Valerian was baptized and gave himself to God. St. Cecilia survived being burned in a furnace, then was to be beheaded. After being struck three times with the sword, she lived for three more days. She is believed to be the first saint whose body was found incorrupt after death. She is the patron saint of musicians.

RE: 2025 Mardi Gras Fundraising Opportunity

Through the generous support of area businesses and families, Immaculate Conception School has thrived with various fundraisers in making our school successful. ICS counts on the success of this event in order to continue providing a faith-filled education to the 50+ children currently enrolled from early childhood through eighth grade.

This year we are having a Mardi Gras event on Saturday, March 1, 2025 at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Montgomery City, Missouri. This is an age 21 and Over event with appetizers, live auction, and the live band, Trixie Delight. Your support will allow us to reach our goal in providing necessary materials and equipment for the rigorous lessons and activities planned by teachers and staff!

Please use the enclosed form and mail your tax deductible donation directly to the school by February 14, 2025. We appreciate your support in enhancing the experiences of our students at Immaculate Conception School as we cultivate future faith-filled leaders for our community.

We are accepting Band Sponsorships as well as items to put on our Live Auction. If you would like to show your support by donating any items, please contact me so I can arrange to pick them up or talk to you about the details. Likewise, we hope you will consider joining us for delicious appetizers, socializing, and dancing. Please see the attached flyer for details. Participation is not required for donation, but we hope to see you there!

Please feel free to contact me at 573-564-2679 or email at dschroeder@icschool-mc.org with any questions or if you need additional information. Thank you in advance for your support!

Sincerely,
