

Alex Key is a classic country singer, songwriter, performer and chart topping artist. His first full length album (released spring of 2021- titled "Barstools and Saddles") broke the top 40 on iTunes worldwide country charts multiple times after songs like "The Fool That I Am" "Sleep Talking" and "The Cowboy Stayed" had viral tiktok success! The album received millions of streams as well as rave reviews from fans and critics alike. Songs from the album were also featured on major outlets such as CMT. His second album (Neon Signs and Stained Glass - released 8/12/22) did not fall short of the same success. Debuting at #1 on Amazon Music new releases and best sellers, receiving rave reviews from outlets such as "Saving Country Music" (also making their essential albums of 2022 list.) Then a 5 star review given from "Country Music People" Magazine all praising his classic sound and the fact that he writes his own songs! The album's success also landed him a spot on Country Evolution's Artist to Watch 2023 list with hits from the album like "Tomorrow I'll Be Over You" and "Everything Must Go!" Did we mention Alex won JMA Country Artist of the Year at the Grand Ole Opry House on October 23rd, 2022?!

Alex and his band travel all over many states and regions playing for constantly growing crowds at large venues, festivals, and events! While they are often headlining, sometimes they're sharing stages with bands like Eli Young Band, Craig Campbell, Muscadine Bloodline, Chayce Beckham, The Kentucky Headhunters, Wynonna Judd, Tyler Childers, Whey Jennings, and many more. Alex has a new album and tour in the works for 2024!
