

Lighthouse Quilters Guild

Sew on and Sew Forth

It seems just yesterday we were waiting for summer and now there are ads appearing for back to school. Too early for me. Make the most of your summer and enjoy each and every day.

Quilting events are far and few during the summer months but while reading Country Register, I came across a Christmas in July event. Visit all five shops from Larsen to Green Bay, pick up an event card at any shop and enter to win great prizes.

For more information and names of participating shops and more details may be found at goingtopiecesquiltco.com. If you're in the area July 26-29 it might be an easy way to visit several shops a short distance from each other.

As mentioned at the guild meeting and will be again, it is time think of filling board positions for the 2024-2025 term. It's your guild and I strongly suggest that you consider filling open positions.

Until next month....The world always seems brighter when you've just made something that wasn't there before. Neil Gaiman

Pat Henningfeld, President

July Program Notes

Our Then & Now presentations were wonderful as usual. I love that we get to sit and get to know guild members and view their growth in quilting.

The annual rummage sale has been moved from July to September so please start building a pile of items to donate. Remember the sale directly benefits the programs we are able to have.

Our July presenter is Lori Dickman, her lecture will be "Speedy Solutions to Cut & Organize Your Scrap Stash!"

Playing with fabric and color has been Lori's passion for over 50 years. And teaching others to join in on this sewer's/quilter's love affair is near and dear to her heart! The art of "Making" has been a wonderful journey for her!

Lori is an educator, an author, and a pattern designer with numerous books and patterns available on her website. Her very popular "Speedy Solutions" books offer step-by-step techniques and patterns to turn your scrap stash into fantastic quilts! You can also find Lori teaching & lecturing at the following national Quilt Shows & Seminars: Great Wisconsin Quilt Show, Madison WI; the Gulf States Quilt Assn, Baton Rouge, LA; and QuiltFest Virtual Schoolhouse 5, Mancuso Show Mgmt, New Hope PA.

Lori's quilts and garments have won numerous awards in various contests around the country. Recently, four of her Art Quilts have been traveling in National Exhibits: [1] "O'wl Sit Under the Light of the Oak Leaf Moon" National Quilt Museum contest, "New Quilt from an Old Favorite." National Quilt Museum; Paducah, Kentucky: April thru June of 2019; and traveled until December 2020. [2] "Bouquet of Flowers for Mom!": 2020 Great Wisconsin Quilt Show Botanical Exhibit, Madison, Wisconsin; and is traveling until September 2022. [3] "Tangled Stars": 2021 Great Wisconsin Quilt Show Art Deco Exhibit, Madison, Wisconsin; and will travel with that Exhibit until September 2023. [4] "Nancy on the Set" took the Blue Ribbon in the Nancy Zieman 40-Years Challenge of the Great Wisconsin Quilt Show. This quilt will be traveling with that Exhibit until September of 2024.

Lori's desire is to inspire others to learn to love the art of quilt-making! Join in on the passion and fun of creating! <http://QuiltingWithLori.com>, YouTube Channel: @quiltingwithlori lori@QuiltingWithLori.com

Guild Meeting Minutes

June 26, 2023

Hybrid meeting—in person and Zoom Virtual meeting

The meeting called to order at 7:00 PM. Pat Henningfeld welcomed two new members and announced that name pins that were ordered should be picked up at table. A CD came due and was transferred to one with higher interest. Pat announced that a web person is needed for our website. It is a paid position. Members were asked to please let her know if you are interested or if anyone you know would be interested. This October, nominations will be announced for LQG Board positions. We need a new president because after filling that position for several years, Pat will not do it again. We also need someone for Publicity and Secretary. Mary Wolter has stepped up to be our VP Planning for 2025 and VP Programs for 2026. Regina Scott Brooks is already doing Planning for 2024 and will do Programs for 2025.

Regina announced tonight's program, is Then and Now which was originally scheduled for January 2023 but was canceled due to weather. Jessica Smith Vaughn was originally scheduled for a workshop and tonight's program but because no one signed up for her workshop, tonight's original program was canceled.

Charity Pedersen was our first Then and Now presenter. She showed several quilts she has made, and told us how her mother taught her to sew when she was a child. She made baby quilts for her children, a T-shirt quilt for her husband, and quilts for her daughters made from clothing she had made for them. Her family gets together at retreats and they make group quilts.

Vicki Madsen showed many quilts. She started making quilts in 1979. She showed a white work whole cloth quilt that she started hand quilting, got two-thirds done and then finally machine quilted the rest in 2013. She told us funny stories about her quilts, including how she made an engagement quilt for her son-in-law which he loves to this day and didn't want to give it back to her for tonight's presentation, even though his dog chewed a large hole in it. She made one quilt where all the pieced trees were upside down. Vickie washes and dries all her quilts, and she tells everyone she gives a quilt to that they should do the same thing. She doesn't care if they fall apart, she just wants them to be used.

Claudia Grace started her presentation asking why a non-quilter would join a quilt guild. She's a cross stitcher, not a quilter. She joined because she loves quilts, and because her sister, Sue Lerch, is a quilter. She even started a quilt for one of Sue's children, which Sue said she never got, and Claudia told her she didn't get it because she never finished it. Claudia then told us more about needlework and cross stitch samplers, and how women used to be schooled by stitching, and all the different variations in the alpha-bets that they would stitch.

Kitty Friend and Mary Wolter talked about the upcoming quilt show and what is needed in terms of volunteers. Sign-up sheets were in the back of the room. Jean Veltman talked about open positions. TC Wiley talked about quilt entries and how we only have EIGHT quilt entries so far. We need 250. Entry forms are downloadable from our website and can be filled out online. Sue Causey talked about the raffle baskets and Barb Vallone reminded us that Crayon Challenges are due at the July meeting. Ginger Wanserski is collecting items for the boutique for now.

Laura Sanders said 61 people, Zoom and in person, were present at the meeting. Door prize winners were named. Stevie Breit will collect Food Pantry items for Autumn Latimore, who is out of town. Next month's Food Pantry item is soup. A wonderful Show & Tell was then presented by members and the meeting was adjourned.

Debbie Blaustein, Secretary

June Meeting Highlights

Then and Now presentations by guild members, Charity Pedersen, Vickie Madsen and Claudia Grace shared their quilting journey with us.

Charity Pedersen showed several quilts she has made, and told us how her mother taught her to sew when she was a child. She made baby quilts for her children, a T-shirt quilt for her husband, and quilts for her daughters made from clothing she had made for them.

Vicki Madsen started making quilts in 1979. She showed a white work whole cloth quilt that she started hand quilting, got two-thirds done and then finally machine quilted the rest in 2013. She made an engagement quilt for her son-in-law which he loves to this day even though his dog chewed a large hole in it. She doesn't care if her quilts fall apart, she just wants them to be used.

Claudia Grace is not a quilter--she's a cross stitcher. She joined because she loves quilts, and because her sister, Sue Lerch, is a quilter. Claudia then told us more about needlework and cross stitch samplers, and how women used to be schooled by stitching, and the different variations in the alpha-bets that they would stitch.

For Sale

Pfaff model 4.5 with an embroidery unit and extra hoops, bobbins, and accessories. It is about 6 years old and all complete with cases, manuals, and lots of embroidery files. This is still a current model in the Pfaff line, has the dual feed, and has been serviced and well cared for. I don't want to ship it but am happy to meet somewhere. I am in Madison. I am asking $3,700 for everything.

In Case You Missed It

Those of you who have ordered, please pick up your pins!

Regina pulled together a great program for our June meeting. Thank you Regina and to Charity Pedersen, Vickie Madsen and Claudia Grace for your inspiring stories of your quilting and cross stitch journeys.

As discussed at our last meeting it is getting near to electing new board members for expiring positions. There are several that need to be filled: President, Membership, Librarian, Secretary and Publicity. Thank you, Mary Wolter for stepping up to fill the position of VP of Planning. Sharon Matusevicius and Sue Causey will continue as Newsletter Editors. Thank you Mary, Sharon and Sue.

Keep up to date and informed of our guild's goings on by reading your newsletter. If you have any questions or concerns, call me.

Hospitality

Well, you wonderful group of women quilters have done it again!

We donated the following at our June meeting:

25 containers of cereal

38 boxes of pasta

10 packages of rice

$25 in cash donations

Special thanks to Stevie Breit for doing the May hospitality report and for collecting our June contributions to the Racine County Food Bank.

For our July meeting, we'll be collecting SOUP!

A few notes on your donations:

Please think of the popular choices: cream of mushroom, chicken noodle, tomato, etc which people use for casseroles and which kids will eat.

Stick to cans or bags/boxes of dried soup mix. Nothing refrigerated.

Please do not contribute open items.

There were bags that had been opened in our last batch of donations and they had to be forfeited.

Lastly, I want to give you an early reminder to Save The Date for our annual Holiday Party on Monday, November 27th. Details will be provided in our August newsletter.

We will start accepting payments at our August meeting.

Enthusiastically submitted,

Autumn Latimore
Hospitality Chair

Calling All Demonstrators!

The quilt show is fast approaching, and it is time to lineup people willing to help with the demonstration segments. I am looking for anyone interested in demonstrating a technique that is fun to do or innovative. There are also opportunities to present some quilting tips in front of a group. The demonstrations take about 10 to 15 minutes. If interested, please let me know. I have some ideas in mind...just need some helpers. Don't be shy; it's just like presenting at Show and Tell during a guild meeting. Please contact me at 262-497-5368 or email me: matusevicius.1@att.net.

Raffle Quilt

Anyone who has not picked up their quilt raffle tickets, they will be available at the July meeting next to the Membership table.

The envelopes contain 5 packs of 6 tickets, 5 bookmarks with show information and a picture of the quilt.

Kathy Lijewski,

Raffle

Thanks to our very generous members who have donated items to the Lighthouse Legacies 2023 raffle! This is another way to raise funds to support our speakers and programs. We are asking each member to donate one or two items—or more!!! You can make something or purchase something. Or you possibly have something that you have never used and would like someone else to enjoy.

In June, we received a book, fat quarters and a template from Judi Greinke, a huge bag of assorted notions from Mary Ludvigsen, 2 quilt puzzles from Nancy Larson, Mary Risler and Darlene Krueger, a tea towel, books patterns and kits from Kimberly Heller-Neal, a rug hooking kit and books, framed art and a quilting design book from TC Wiley, and a cake mix recipe kit including 44 “recipes cards” from Jennifer Clingaman. Plus many other items from anonymous donors including a thread bag, an embroidery stitch guide and floss, two pin cushions with needles and pins, a bag of zippers, and a basket of clips, pins, snips and nips!

I will bring a box to collect items starting at every meeting until September. I can also pick up items if you can't bring them to the meeting. This will be separate from the boutique collection box and will be labeled accordingly.

Feel welcome to call or email me with questions.

Sue Causey, 262 681 6676

Crayon Challenge

The deadline to turn in the crayon challenge quilts is the July meeting! Thank you everyone who took a crayon. If you have any questions, please contact me Barbara Vallone at qltingb@gmail.com.

2023 Lighthouse Legacies Quilt Show Rules

October 7-8, 2023

1. Anyone may enter quilts in the show. The show is limited to the first 250 entries. Entries must be postmarked by Monday, September 11, 2023.
2. The entry fee for the first item is $5.00. For each additional item, the entry fee is $3.00.
3. You may enter only one (1) item per class.
4. Quilts must have three layers (top, batting and backing).
5. The CLASS for an entered item is determined by the predominant method of construction. To help with CLASS determination, the following is the definition for an entry into the MODERN QUILT CATEGORY:
Quilts in this category may have a strong visual impact, non-traditional designs and quilting styles, high contrast, creative graphic elements and/or expansive negative space.
6. "Other Techniques" include whole cloth, yo-yo, crazy quilts, painted or stenciled quilts and other forms of embellishment
7. Entries must be entirely made by the entrant unless entered in a "Quilted by Other" or Quilts Among Friends" class.
  - a. Quilted by Other means someone else quilted your entry.
  - b. Quilts Among Friends means two (2) or more people worked on the entry at any stage of its construction. No money was exchanged for services.
  - c. You must list the names of all people/groups who worked on the quilt.
8. No cheater cloth quilts, framed items or sweatshirts may be entered.

Entries Must:

- Be clean and odor free.
- Have been completed within the last five (5) years and never previously entered in a Lighthouse Legacies show.
- Have a four-inch rod pocket attached to quilts and wall hangings. The TOP of the rod pocket must be sewn no more than 90" from the bottom of the quilt when the finished quilt is longer than 90". Top and bottom of the rod pocket must be sewn down. A rod pocket is not required for Miniature quilts, Lighthouse Challenge quilts, Home Accessories, and Apparel/Accessories.
- Have a label sewn on the lower back (inside on wearable art) which includes entry title and entrant's name. The entrant's name must be covered for judging with fabric or masking tape (do not use blue painter's tape) and
- Be in a pillowcase or cloth bag of appropriate size and labeled with your name, address and telephone number. Two labels are required: on the outside of both sides of the open end of the pillowcase or bag.

Any entry that does not meet these rules will not be accepted or displayed. Entrant will be notified of disqualification.

Lighthouse Legacies 2023

October 7—8, 2023

The quilt show entry form is being sent as a separate attachment to the newsletter, and will also be available on our website and Facebook Page. It is a form that you can download and save to your PC or tablet. Easy Peasy for sure! You can then save it in your files as documentation if you so choose.

Please remember that quilt show attendees love to see how your creation came to be, so add your entry description for all to read. See you at the show.
