Guidance for Communal Worship during the COVID-19 Pandemic – Step 4 Although most legal restrictions relating to the Covid pandemic are ending on Monday 19th July, a degree of caution is still needed to protect the vulnerable in the parish. A summary of guidance from the C.B.C.E.W is below. Full details can be found at <https://www.cbcew.org.uk/> <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/covid-19-guidance-for-the-safe-use-of-places-of-worship>

Track and Trace: although no longer legally required, it has been recommended that we continue to “check in” with the NHS QR code poster, or manually.

Face coverings: should still be worn by all those coming to a church service (exemptions for medical reasons excluded.).

Social distancing will not be mandatory in our church. However, there will be socially distanced seats available.

Hand sanitising will remain necessary on arrival.

Holy Communion For the time being we will continue to distribute Holy Communion to parishioners in the benches.

Open Parish Meeting 15th September at 7.00pm in Church. All welcome to attend.

Please pray for Maraid and Henry who are being enrolled onto the First Communion Programme. Please remember them in your prayers.

Today we are resuming our after-Mass coffees – Alleluia!!
 There will be coffee at the back of church.

Thank you to all Red Mission Box holders. So far this year we have banked £219.85. Well done!
