

Meditation 3.17.20

I share these words of St. Patrick:

“Christ with me,
Christ before me,
Christ behind me,
Christ in me,
Christ beneath me,
Christ above me,
Christ on my right,
Christ on my left,
Christ when I lie down,
Christ when I sit down,
Christ when I arise,
Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me,
Christ in the mouth of everyone who speaks of me,
Christ in every eye who sees me,
Christ in every ear that hears me.”

This meditation reminds me that the world is watching how Jesus followers are handling our worldwide crisis. I pray that others see Christ in each one of us, and want to know Jesus because they are drawn to what they see.

Some of my God sightings today include robins and blooming spring flowers in my front yard, teachers posting on Facebook their willingness to help students struggling with assignments, and the smile on my brave husband's face.

I'll be listening to Celtic music today. My sweetie took me to a "Celtic Women" concert a number of years ago and it was amazing.

Happy St. Patrick's Day. May the Lord bless you and keep you.
