

May 24, 2016
CLE Luncheon

Lookout Mountain Room at the Jefferson County Courthouse
12:00 pm – 1:00 pm

Elder Abuse - Working Together To Protect Seniors
Presented by Candace Werth

The Jefferson County DA's office is actively involved in prosecuting elder abuse, and Elder Abuse Unit head Candace Werth, Esq. will present a short CLE at this luncheon to describe real cases prosecuted in Jefferson County, and raise awareness among civil practitioners about the cross-section between civil law and criminal prosecution in our elderly and disabled population.

Candace Werth is deputy district attorney. Over the last 24 years Ms. Werth has tried nearly 200 cases including 24 homicide trials. Currently, Ms. Werth is the head of the specialized elder abuse unit at the DA's office and will enter private practice this summer.

$20 CLE with lunch for 1st JD members
$25 CLE with lunch for non-members
$5 CLE with no lunch

Sign up online at: www.1stjd.org/cle.html
Or vicki_malara@comcast.net

Application for CLE credit has been requested.