Claiming Her Inheritance

Sally Clark has received an inheritance of a lifetime, but first she must spend four weeks on the family ranch in Montana.

Chase Reynolds is astounded that his father has willed one-third of their ranch to a total stranger. Who is this woman and what hold did she have over his dad?

What Sally and Chase discover is beyond their imagination and yields far greater consequences than the inheritance.

A touch of suspense, a touch of romance, and a whole lot of fun.

A Heart for Prayer: 21 Days of Drawing Close to Father God

Do you desire to have a heart for prayer?

Psalms 27:8 says, "My heart has heard you say, "Come and talk with me." And my heart responds, "Lord, I am coming."

Our Father God longs for his children to spend time with him. Having a heart for prayer is simply having a heart for relationship. When we enjoy being with someone, we find ourselves lingering in their presence. One cup of coffee turns into two and before we know it, we lose track of time.

That's the way it can be when we linger with our Abba Father. He's never in a hurry to leave and never grows impatient in waiting for us. He's always excited when his children come running into his arms without prodding. Prayer is the proof that we're relying on Father God. When we come to him in prayer, we're saying,

I love You.

I need You.

I want to be with You.

My hope is that each of these 21 days help whet your appetite to enjoy a lifetime of sweet prayer with your heavenly Father. May you find yourself agreeing with David in Psalms 34:8,

"Taste and see that the Lord is good. Oh, the joys of those who take refuge in him!"
