RE: Certificate of Entry in the National Register of Historic Places:
Mount Airy Historic District Boundary Increase, Mount Airy, Surry County
Listed: August 28, 2012

Dear Mayor Cochran:

I am pleased to inform you that the above-referenced historic district has been entered in the National Register of Historic Places. An official certificate of listing is enclosed. Your town is most fortunate to preserve an area that justly deserves this honor.

The National Register has been called "a roll call of the tangible reminders of the history of the United States." It is, therefore, a pleasure for the Office of Archives and History to participate in this program and thereby make our nation aware of North Carolina's rich cultural heritage.

In order that we may keep our records up to date, it would be very helpful if you would notify us of any major alteration in the structure, including moving, destruction, remodeling, or restoration. We appreciate your cooperation in preserving the best of our past for posterity.

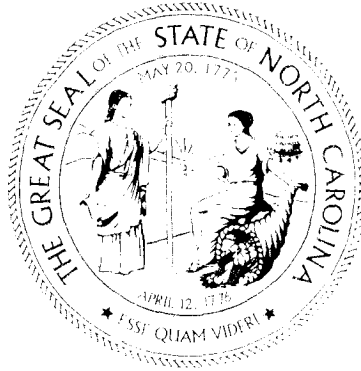

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Ramona M. Bartos".

This is to certify that

MOUNT AIRY HISTORIC DISTRICT
Additional Documentation
Mount Airy - Surry County

has been entered in

THE NATIONAL REGISTER OF HISTORIC PLACES

by the United States Department of the Interior upon nomination by the State Historic Preservation Officer under provisions of the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966 (P.L. 89-665).

The National Register is a list of properties "significant in American history, architecture, archaeology, and culture – a comprehensive index of the significant physical evidences of our national patrimony." Properties listed therein deserve to be preserved by their owners as a part of the cultural heritage of our nation.
