

SUNDAY MORNING

meditation

Jesus said,
"A new commandment I give to you that you love one another, as I have loved you, that you also love one another" (John 13:34). What a challenge! To love like Jesus. But this kind of love isn't natural to us. Our nature inherited from Adam is naturally selfish, striving, competitive. But don't worry. The Divine kind of love was planted in our spirits at the new birth, and is now a fruit of our regenerated spirit (Gal. 5:22). So this new kind of love is possible to us; otherwise Jesus wouldn't have commanded it. So what if we invented a new competitive sport where the winners excelled in unselfish acts of love. Siblings and family members would vie with each other in brotherly kindness. Competition would be fierce. Husbands and wives could compete. We could award medals, but the joy it would bring would be reward enough. All for Jesus, Richard
