
NASW MIAMI-DADE

|WINTER 2017|

Unit Welcome!

Thank you for being a part of the Miami-Dade NASW unit! If you have any questions or feedback, we would love to hear from you. We are excited to be your leadership team!

Staying Connected!

We would like to celebrate your accomplishments, assist you with your recruitment needs and share in your successes. Please email us at miamidade.naswfl@socialworkers.org with your professional accomplishments, employment postings, agency events and we will be happy to include submitted information in the next newsletter.

Survey Results are in!

Thank you to the members who participated in our Summer 2017 membership survey. We are committed to incorporating the feedback provided into our planning for this year. We have planned for monthly CE workshops and are working diligently to secure a variety of locations to meet your needs.

Winter 2017

December 2nd CE & Holiday Social

Join us for our upcoming CE event on December 2, 2017 from 9 am to 12 pm at Keiser University, 2101 NW 117th Avenue, Miami FL as we discuss NASW's New Code of Ethics: Re-boot Your Knowledge; Prepare for Launch presented by Susan Mankita, LCSW. Revisions, effective January 1, 2018, include new standards and clarity and ethical responsibilities in an era where technology has become an integral part of our practice. Click here to register. Immediately following this CE event, you are also invited to our Holiday Social from 12-1. Join us for light refreshments as we celebrate the holiday season! We will be collecting unwrapped toys, canned items and monetary donations for families affected by recent natural disasters in the Florida Keys. If you are or work with agencies that may benefit from such donations, please contact miamidade.naswfl@socialworkers.org.

Spotlight on Unit Chair - Angela Miller, MSW, MPA

A Miami native, Ms. Miller received her MSW and MPA from Florida International University (FIU) in the last two years, and she has worked in county government for over 20 years providing supportive services to vulnerable children and families. In addition to serving as our current Unit Chair for NASW Miami-Dade Unit, Ms. Miller is the State Membership Committee Chair. She has volunteered with the United Way of Miami-Dade County for over 9 years by reviewing and selecting community providers request for funding, and is actively involved in various initiatives regarding homelessness, substance abuse, education, and mental illness.
