2017 Arts & Music Festival

Saturday, September 30th from 10 am – 4 pm

Get ready for crafts, art, food, music and more – rain or shine! A wide variety of entertainment is lined up for guests of all ages to enjoy: a WWI exhibit with genuine artifacts will be on display with the South Coast

Historical Associates, the Old Colony Highlanders Pipe Band, a puppeteer and a balloon artist are just a few!

Lakeville Fire Department's Old Engine #3, typically on display at the Lakeville Historical Museum, will be joining the festival for the entire day.

Children between the ages of 2 and 13 are invited to decorate a mini pumpkin during the Festival inside the Children's Room of the Library between noon and 1:30.

Keep your eye out for the new Arts & Music Logo being unveiled at this year's festival!

New Programs!

Ms. Teresa is working on some new programming and needs your input. On the Youth Services section of the website and on our Facebook page you will find links to surveys. Please take a minute or two and let us know your opinions. The three new programs are:

Dungeons and Dragons

"The core of D&D is storytelling. You and your friends tell a story together, guiding your heroes through quests for treasure, battles with deadly foes, daring rescues, courtly intrigue, and much more."

4th & 5th Grade Book Club

Attention all 4th & 5th grade students! If you like reading and talking to your friends about the books you've read, then you will LOVE our new book club just for you!

YA Night

If you are in 6th - 12th grade and want to share your love of books, music, TV, art, Broadway or anything this is where you want to be!
