November first of 2017 featured the opening of Stonehouse Market in its new larger location at 62 West Washington Street in Oswego (630/470-8879)... Two floors of Antiques, Vintage, Home Décor, Lighting and unique one-of-a-kind items fill the old Stone House. Owner Becky Anderson relocated to Illinois from Alabama, and has done refinished furniture and upholstery all her adult life. At previous local locations in both an Antique Mall and downtown Oswego, she is now excited about the broadening of her business into a full-fledged cohesive retail store and invites new and past customers to visit!

Early indications are that Stonehouse Market features a

“fabulous selection at great prices.”

Some of the unique items in the store are finished chalk painted and repurposed furniture, clever magnets, some antiques, topiaries, handmade cards, a complete line of paint and stains for “do it your selfers,” lots of vintage home decor and plenty of fine upholstery fabrics from which to choose. Becky mentioned that she is booked six months out for her re-upholstery services which she is now able to do on-site in a separate private area which is part of the larger location.

An item that has customers buzzing is the collection of little Buttercups from Earthborn Pottery. Originally intended to hold butter and sold for that purpose to many fine restaurants, they are now available for purchase at Stonehouse Market, and are equally useful to rest a tea bag or hold rings. Available in several different glazed finishes, they make great gifts.

She is thrilled that business has been brisk. Lest customers wonder where to park, there is ample off street parking to the west of the building.

Stonehouse Market will join many others retailers in the “Vintage Shop Hop” which takes place throughout Illinois and Wisconsin on March 2nd and 3rd; on Friday, March 2nd, they will open at the special time of 8 AM for anxious customers.

Delivery and Bridal Registry are available; just ask for details. Store hours are Wednesday through Saturday, 10 AM to 6 PM, Sunday, 10 AM to 5 PM, Closed Monday and Tuesday.
