

Better Background Checks

First Advantage, a worldwide information provider, brings Core Partnership members an expansive suite of screening searches from public and proprietary data sources.

First Advantage leads the industry, delivering over 16 million background screenings annually, with solutions designed to ensure your candidates have the background skills, attitudes and aptitudes to make a positive difference in your organization.

First Advantage can provide:

Background Screening

- Credit
- Social security verification
- Motor vehicle report
- First Advantage national criminal file
- Database searches
- County criminal records
- Statewide criminal records
- Federal criminal records
- Sex offender search
- Employment verification
- Education verification
- Credential verification

Online Capabilities

All services are available through one easy-to-use website with reporting and delivery flexibility. Get results quickly by web, fax or XML transfer. By offering full account administration capabilities online, customers may manage users, update account information and keep billing contacts current.

Additional Searches

Normal employment screening, plus:

- Corporate affiliations
- Searches of civil public records
- Global and local language media checks
- First Advantage Global Sanctions searches

Drug Testing

Complete program management includes training, policy development and review services as well as drug screening options.

