About Community Foundation of Washington County

In 2012 civic leaders formed The Community Foundation of Washington County (CFWC), as a 501(c)(3) charitable, non-profit organization. The CFWC is able to receive tax deductible gifts to support non-profit organizations or charitable causes in Washington County and elsewhere. Like other community foundations, CFWC serves as a savings account for the community. The CFWC is governed by a strong 15 person Board of Directors and is one of 750 community foundations in the United States today.

The Community Foundation of Washington County accepts a wide variety of gifts, including: cash, stocks, life insurance, property, and bequests – all providing donors great flexibility and maximum tax benefits.

The Delta Force of Washington County was created in 2016 to serve as a Community Based Recovery Committee for the Washington County community. This committee is comprised of community leaders, church leaders and community volunteers with the central goal of assisting with relief and long-term recovery efforts stemming from disasters in our community.

The Delta Force of Washington County will work to meet the unmet needs suffered by citizens and organizations in Washington County caused by natural or man-made disasters and other disaster related needs. Collaborations and partnerships are key to the success of this committee as they strive to ensure disaster relief efforts are not duplicated throughout our community and that resources are combined to yield maximum results in the face of future disasters.

With guidance from both the Mississippi Emergency Management Association and the Washington County Emergency Services leadership, this committee has set up its structure according to “best practices” and is prepared to serve our community.

Donors can contribute to this fund and play a significant role in the relief and recovery efforts here in Washington County, both now and in future disasters.
