

Samantha Libasci

Scholarship: $2,000 Annual Anchor Scholarship sponsored by GE Marine

College: Shenandoah University

Major: Psychology/Pre-Occupational Therapy Major

2019-2020: Sophomore

Academic and Extracurricular Highlights:

- 3.88 High School     3.64 College GPA
- President DECA Club - preparing emerging leaders and entrepreneurs
- Trip Manager - Shenandoah University's Outdoor Activities and Recreational program

Quotes:

"If the world had more people like this particular student in it, it would certainly be a much better place. I believe that students who possess great potential should be given every opportunity to succeed and this student is certainly very deserving..."

Jonathan Noyalas - Professor and Director, Shenandoah University's McCormick Civil War Institute

"I feel very honored and thankful to be a recipient of this scholarship....I am currently in a fast-track program where I am majoring in psychology with a minor in biology. My dream is to be able to help mentally and physically disabled children in their daily lives through therapy....Thank you very much for your generous support."

Samantha