Meet One of Our Vendors!

My name is Gretchen Laiuppa. I am a full-time bilingual Independent Designer and Executive Team Leader with Origami Owl. I started my business in 2012 and I LOVE IT! My job is FUN and Meaningful. I help others tell stories in their lockets, as well as, share this great opportunity with this OWLmazing Company! As a wife of a retired Air Force Pilot, I know what it is like to move from place to place and start over. I love the friends and customers I have met through all my moves and working my Origami

Owl business wherever I am. I enjoy mentoring and helping others have a successful business. My favorite part about Origami Owl are the diverse people I have met at Jewelry Bars (Parties) and/or at Vendor events. I do vendor events, especially Bridal Shows. I carry inventory and ship all over the US and PR. I love meeting new people, I speak fluent Spanish and love helping others start and have a fun successful business.
