

FYI: August 2018

- Is August really here! , still, the perfect weather for hand quilting on the run or quilting indoors, turn up the AC!
- Our guild meeting is Wednesday, August 1, @ 7:00pm in Jamesport
- July's meeting featured Sue Pelland .
- Sue awed us all with her beautiful quilts and clever tools! She was an amazing teacher and all students loved participating in her "Leaves Galore Techniques" in a workshop. We learned so much!
- August 1 , the guild meeting will be back in Jamesport; the program will be a Panel on "preparing your quilt for the longarmer", by Joyce Austin & Barbara Ryan
- Saturday September 8,our meeting will be at the Old Steeple Church in Aquebogue ; our speaker will be Dana Balsamo, "Repurposing Your vintage Textiles" appraisals available after lu7nch; Sit & Sew charity afternoon; "Care & Feeding of Your Featherweight" by Barbara Fein
- Sign your UFO pledge ;
- The Southold Historical Society Quilt Exhibit is having a preview event on July 31 , @ 7pm 'Quilts, Past & Present', at the North Shore Public Library in Shoreham. The guild is providing more modern and traditional quilts to add to the exhibit; I will be speaking also; it would be great for our members to attend- please see me if you have quilts for the exhibit
- Think about participating in August as a docent at the Historical Society Event; see JoAnne Maddalena or Tippy Case ; If you are entering a quilt in the exhibition, fill out the registration form tonight; the deadline is Wednesday
- We are so happy to support this wonderful event!
- Thank you all for your support and patience as we continue a new year together, learning and creating wonderful quilts !
