Dear Brothers,
 We wish to welcome Father Paul as our new Chaplain and Father Chris a newly awarded Knight of OLOR. The 1st Back to School Picnic has been postponed and a future date in 2025 will be determined. What would summer in L.I. be without a Lobster/Clam Bake! Thanks to Augie Virzi for keeping this tradition going. For our Council to continue to be successful in providing these events VOLUNTEERS are needed. I thank all the past, current and hopefully more new volunteers as that what being a Knight means. Hope to see you at our once a month Council meeting each 1st Thursday of the month. God Bless and I wish you all a safe happy end of summer.

Respectively,
 GK SK Brian Breckles

Dear Sister Columbiette,
 Reflecting on summer sunset and looking forward to everything that lies ahead as we start a new Columbiette year. We begin our year with the receipt of the Margaret Mary J. Mangan Achievement Award for the 26th year. Mary J. Mangan was one of our Founders and our first Supreme President. The program honors her and, in spirit, continues her love and dedication to the Columbiettes. This award recognizes and congratulates Our Lady of the Rosary Columbiettes for all the good works which were accomplished during 2023.
