

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Actors Hall of Fame announces the names of 30 actors who are nominated for Induction.

Barbra Streisand, Robert Downey Jr., Viola Davis, Jane Fonda, Harrison Ford and Kate Winslet among new nominees for induction to The Actors Hall of Fame.

(October 23, 2018 Los Angeles, CA) The Actors Hall of Fame's Board of Electors has released the names of the 30 actors who have been nominated for Induction to The Actors Hall of Fame., it was announced today by AHOF Chairman, Rusty Citron.

The nominees are: Alan Arkin, Alan Alda, Barbra Streisand, Bob Hope, Burt Lancaster, Carroll O'Connor, Charlton Heston, Danny Kaye, David Niven, Deborah Kerr, Harrison Ford, Jane Fonda, John Lithgow, Julia Roberts, Kate Winslet, Kevin Costner, Martin Sheen, Mickey Rooney, Nathan Lane, Nina Foch, Ricardo Montalban, Robert Downey, Jr., Rod Steiger, Ruby Dee, Shelly Winters, Viola Davis, William Holden, Yul Brynner, Zero Mostel and Spencer Tracy.

The full Board of Electors, comprised of dramatic arts educators from over 300 colleges and universities around the world, will vote by preference for 10 contemporary and 10 posthumous actors. To qualify for nomination, each actor has earned a peer recognition award (Tony, Oscar or Emmy). Each of the nominees has achieved artistic success by creating new characters that captures the imagination of audiences around the world.

The Foundation's expanded criteria will also include the AFI Life Achievement Award, and the SAG/AFTRA Life Achievement awards as qualifying honors.