

DURHAM CIVITAN CLUB

October 22th, 2020

Meeting Thursday, October 22, 2020

CONCERNS: Dennis is home and doing well. We were happy to have Charlie with us today and looking good.

BIRTHDAYS: Sandy Herring Oct. 25

NCDE Fall Meeting: Will be Saturday, November 21 and is a virtual meeting. More to come

Duke concessions: We don't think there will be any concession this year.

Peanuts: This is our only fundraiser and we need to really sell as much as we can. Please have your order forms back to Marlene by October 30.

Salvation Army Bellinging: Danielle said we could ring the bell in November and December this year. So we decided to ring the bell one day in November and one day in December. Danielle will get back to us with the dates.

Door Prizes: Howard, Joe, Worth, Charlie, Bill and Marlene

Queen of Hearts: $117– Bridget Ryan– did not win

Speaker: Our speaker joined us through Zoom and it was Mason Smith with Boys and Girls Homes. He told us about a new home – the Bright Hope cottage. It is for the children of families going to rehab. This is a whole family approach.
