

Life & Death

John 11:17-26 1 Corinthians 15:54
6th in series: Glimpses of Hope

The three great fears of all people are:

- a.
- b.
- c.

Worry is imagining a _____ that may _____.

What you believe about _____ changes everything about how you _____ this life.

ACTION STEPS:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Daily Prayer

Lord, as I read this passage written so long ago, help me to see the eternal truth it holds for me. Let me embrace Your Word as the guide for my life. Amen.

Monday, 7/08 Isaiah 40:27-31

This passage was written of the Jews returning to their desolate and ruined land after generations of exile. Have you ever felt like them and felt God has ignored your plight? What helped you become renewed in strength and will?

Tuesday, 7/09 Psalm 71:17-19

Our generation lifts up youthfulness and beauty while admonishing signs of aging. Yet, this psalm tells that God does not despise or denigrate old age. How have or how can you change your way of thinking of getting old?

Wednesday, 7/10 Luke 2:25-38

Here we read of two different generations brought together by the birth of the Messiah. What do you notice that each generation may have learned from the other in this experience? How might this help you in your interactions with other age-groups?

Thursday, 7/11 2 Corinthians 4:6-18

Paul penned this after experiencing a difficult period in life. Relating this to the pain of getting older and moving towards the end of life, how does this passage speak to you about your experience of the pains of aging and mortality?

Friday, 7/12 1 Corinthians 15:51-57

We often describe our struggle with death as a battle, and that death will someday defeat us. Yet, how is Paul describing death? How might this passage help change your thoughts and words about death?

Saturday, 7/13 Proverbs 3:6-7

We often define fear as being scared or afraid. Do you believe this is how we are to be towards God? What other way can we define fear? How will this understanding help us in our struggle with life and death?

Life & Death

John 11:17-26 1 Corinthians 15:54

6th in series: Glimpses of Hope

The three great fears of all people are:

- a.
- b.
- c.

Worry is imagining a _____ that may _____.

What you believe about _____ changes everything about how you _____ this life.

ACTION STEPS:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Daily Prayer

Lord, as I read this passage written so long ago, help me to see the eternal truth it holds for me. Let me embrace Your Word as the guide for my life. Amen.

Monday, 7/08 Isaiah 40:27-31

This passage was written of the Jews returning to their desolate and ruined land after generations of exile. Have you ever felt like them and felt God has ignored your plight? What helped you become renewed in strength and will?

Tuesday, 7/09 Psalm 71:17-19

Our generation lifts up youthfulness and beauty while admonishing signs of aging. Yet, this psalm tells that God does not despise or denigrate old age. How have or how can you change your way of thinking of getting old?

Wednesday, 7/10 Luke 2:25-38

Here we read of two different generations brought together by the birth of the Messiah. What do you notice that each generation may have learned from the other in this experience? How might this help you in your interactions with other age-groups?

Thursday, 7/11 2 Corinthians 4:6-18

Paul penned this after experiencing a difficult period in life. Relating this to the pain of getting older and moving towards the end of life, how does this passage speak to you about your experience of the pains of aging and mortality?

Friday, 7/12 1 Corinthians 15:51-57

We often describe our struggle with death as a battle, and that death will someday defeat us. Yet, how is Paul describing death? How might this passage help change your thoughts and words about death?

Saturday, 7/13 Proverbs 3:6-7

We often define fear as being scared or afraid. Do you believe this is how we are to be towards God? What other way can we define fear? How will this understanding help us in our struggle with life and death?