Durham Churchyard

Here lies the Widow's grave shall be cared for.
And the Orphan's shall be known.
By the Church which stands forever,
Which in life they called their own.
Beneath these rugged oaks all buried deep,
In row by row with feet toward the dawn,
The godly Founders of the Parish sleep
The sleep of peace till Resurrection Morn.
In Durham Churchyard now they lie.
Still facing the Eastern sky.
A place of rest for you is found,
Now undisturbed in hallow ground.
(Rev. Reginald B. Stevenson)

“Perpetual care of the churchyard was begun, by vote of the Easter vestry, in 1929. The Graveyard Committee consisted of Mr. Samuel C. Linton, Sr., Lawrence Monroe, and Golden Robey. The ground was cleared, leveled, and seeded, but most important of all was the devoted care to seeing to it that no old graves were lost. The County Surveyor then made an official Plat of the Churchyard. This plat shows the William Stone Road along the north side of the church which divides the burial ground into north and south sides.” R.B.S. Feb. 19, 1942

Cement markers along this road show the number of each row and in recent years have been replaced with new markers. This corresponds with a number in the plat book, insures that no grave will be lost. The plat book has a
- page for each row and a line for each grave.

Since 1929 the Durham Churchyard has always been in the care of the vestry but funded by endowments. Others involved in its care included George C. Dyson, Bill Heissermann, John Jarrett, and now, John Welch.

Through the years many unmarked graves' occupants have been identified through church records and family members and entered into the Graveyard book. The Committee is in the process of marking all with small stone markers emblazoned with a cross and listed as “Occupied—Unknown” in the Plat book. This record of graves and burials has been in existence since the 1929 vestry.

Included is an index of known burials from the churchyard book which has no record of their grave site. These records go back as far as 1885 since previous registers are not available.

Website key:

Information listed includes all known names, row, graveside, burial date (unless noted) and age at death.

Italicized printed names refer to endowed sites reserved for future occupancy.

NS next to the grave number indicates that there is no marker or stone for that grave at the present time.

An “A” next to the grave number indicates more than one occupant per burial site usually by cremation.

Use the map to locate the grave site in relation to the church building.
