

Vice-chair Betsy Hardwick is a life-long Francestown resident with roots going back several generations. She served the town as a member of the Board of Selectmen for seven years, three as chair, and has been chair of the Francestown Conservation Commission for 16 of the 17 years she has served since 1999. Betsy is also a member of the town's Master Plan Committee. She has been instrumental in numerous land acquisition projects in the town. An avid outdoorswoman, Betsy enjoys leading tracking outings for the land trust and the conservation commission.
