Dear Friends;

For a long time many have been requesting a trip to Quebec and Montreal, our neighbors to the North. For those who are not friends of the skies, we will be traveling solely on the surface by deluxe motor-coach from NJ to Canada and return.

While in Canada we will visit the old world city of Quebec, the Paris of the North,, one of the first French settlements in the north ;Christianized by the Jesuit priests of St Francis Xavier and a World Heritage site. Quebec is the only walled city in North America resembling the Medieval cities of Europe. We will visit the Shrine of Sainte Anne de Beaupre` .

In Montreal ; the New York of the North , however with it's European way of life; it's customs and traditions will charm you into believing you have left the Continent! Fabulous food, warm friendly people and a city of fun, shopping and entertainment will enchant you to return for more. We will visit such places as the magnificent Basilica of Notre Dame along the banks of the St. Lawrence River. The Oratory of St. Joseph, high on a hill overlooking the city , founded by Brother Andre` canonized by Pope Benedict. The charm and the ambiance of the Ville Vieux, the old town or original settlement of Montreal will dazzle your senses.

Join us as we journey north from New Jersey through New York, Connecticut and Vermont to arrive in Quebec and then from Montreal , crossing the grandiose St. Lawrence, through New York State and along the magnificent Hudson River to arrive once again back home .

Day 1 - NJ/Quebec City, Canada

Today we depart early from New Jersey, to Quebec City in Canada. We will stop en-route for a picnic lunch (included). Our arrival will be sometime in mid/late afternoon. Upon arrival we will check-in to our hotel and have some time to freshen up before taking a gentle walk to the old town. Overnight in Quebec.

Day 2 - Quebec City - Walking Tour

This morning after a refreshing night's rest and a hearty breakfast, we begin a walking tour of the old city. We will see such places as the Old Quebec quarter, the fortifications, Place Royale, the Parliament Building and the many monuments of this Old World city. Overnight in Quebec City.

Day 3 - Sainte Anne de Beauport

Today, after breakfast, we will leave for the Shrine of St. Ann in Beauport, where we will spend almost the entire day. We will begin by driving along Canada's oldest road, through historical villages on the north bank of the St. Lawrence River. Upon arrival, there will be a guided tour of the Basilica and Shrine. Inside you will see the chapels within the Basilica, the Pieta` (an exact replica of the original Michelangelo in Rome) and the Scala Santa which houses the replica of the Holy Stairs which Jesus ascended. The balance of the day will be free to enjoy the day. There will be free time to explore further or to visit the Sainte Anne Museum and the Basilica gift shop. This evening you will enjoy a dinner cruise with wine included aboard a lovely cruiser, such as the MV Louis Jolliet for an unforgettable evening with a three-course meal at sunset. Overnight in Quebec.

Day 4 - Montreal City

After breakfast we will have an early departure for the beautiful Old and Modern city of Montreal. Upon arrival in Montreal we will check in at our hotel and have some time to relax and renew. A walking tour of the Old Town and free time to stroll on your own is planned for this afternoon. Tonight we can meander through Vieux Ville (Old Town) where you may have a delicious dinner (on your own) in one of the hundreds of French/Canadian style restaurants of the old village. For those who are still willing, we will spend some free time in the Old Town wandering through the many boutiques, shops or just enjoying the sidewalk performers and shows which continue into the late hours of the evening. Overnight in Montreal.

Day 5 - Montreal City Tour

Today after breakfast we will begin the deluxe city tour of Montreal. A complete tour of this lovely city taking in over 200 points of interest, including a guided tour of Notre Dame Basilica, outside view of the Olympic Stadium, McGill University and a panoramic view from the top of Mount Royal. Also, experience a thrilling cable car ride to the top of the Olympic Tower and a visit to the Botanical Gardens, the second largest botanical garden in the world. We will also visit the famous Saint Joseph Oratory set high upon the hill of Mount Royal. Tonight you may wish dine (on your own) in Continental style at the renowned French restaurant "Le Parchemin", once the old parsonage of Montreal's Anglican Cathedral above the world largest underground mall*. (Le Parchemin require proper dress and reservations.) Overnight in Montreal.

With over 32 km (20 mi) of tunnels spread over more than 12 km² (4.6 sq mi), connected areas include shopping malls, apartment buildings, hotels, condominiums, banks, offices, museums, universities, seven metro stations, two commuter train stations, a regional bus terminal and the Bell Centre amphitheatre and arena.^[2] There are more than 120 exterior access points to the underground city. Each access point is an entry point to one of 60 residential or commercial complexes comprising 3.6 km² (1.4 sq mi) of floor space, including 80% of all office space and 35% of all commercial space in downtown Montreal.^[citation needed] In winter, some 500,000 people use the underground city every day. (from Wikipedia)*

Day 6 -- Laurentian Mountains Tour/ Mont Tremblant

Today we will begin early and spend an unforgettable day in the spectacular Laurentian Mountains north of the city. A thousand freshwater lakes and picturesque villages dot the beautiful Laurentian landscape. Our main stop today will be the Village of Mont Tremblant, where there will be a guided tour. This charming and picturesque village sits on the shores of Lakes Mercier and Moore with its lovely Place de la Gare and beaches. You will enrich your life with the townspeople's passion and pride for their beautiful and colorfully adorned village. A lunch (included) is in this exquisite bit of paradise. After lunch there will be free time for exploring on your own and shopping. An optional Gondola (cable car) ride to the top of Mont Tremblant will be offered for those interested. Dinner (on your own) and overnight in Montreal.

Day 7 - Montreal Free Day

Today will be an entirely free day to enjoy the city on your own. Montreal is very safe and an easy city to move around independently. The public transportation is very good and the taxis are very reliable. Today might be a nice day to shop in rue Sainte Catherine, lined with shops, boutiques and department stores for several miles. Very close to our hotel; you may want to visit the largest underground mall in the world with it hundreds Take a walk up to Bishop Street and enjoy one of the many bistros and restaurants for lunch. You can stroll on Sainte Denis in the Latin Quarter lined from top to bottom with restaurants, cafes and patisserie. Happy Hour on St. Denis is great with many places offering the best oysters and mussels from the cold north Atlantic waters of Prince Edward Island. "If you enjoy vodka, have an oyster shooter!" Alternatively, it might be nice to return to Old Town amidst its charm and ambience. Those who feel lucky may want to go to the Casino de Montreal and try their hand at the machines or game tables. Tonight we will regroup in our hotel lobby to be transferred to fine French/Canadian restaurant for our Farewell Dinner (included) and overnight in Montreal.

Day 8 - Montreal/New Jersey

After breakfast, this morning, we bid a fond "Au Revoir" to our neighbors in the north, as we head homeward bound with lovely thoughts and memories of this Canadian Adventure. En route we will stop in beautiful Lake George, New York for lunch (on your own) and some free time to take in the beauty of this magnificent village and lake. Overnight at home!

A masterpiece of Gothic Revival architecture, Notre-Dame Basilica was built between 1824 and 1829. The magnificent interior in wood and the boldly modern design of the Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur Chapel, captivate hundreds of thousands of visitors each year. Paintings, sculptures and stained-glass windows illustrate biblical passages as well as 350 years of parish history. In the

Points of Interest & Things to do in Free Time

QUEBEC CITY: Founded in 1608, Quebec City is one of the oldest cities in Canada. The Old Town is very European in style and its wealth of architectural gems has led to it being named a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Visit the famous Hotel Frontenac; the cocktail lounge is glass and overlooks the beautiful St. Lawrence River. Relax and enjoy a cocktail.

Walk down and around the city walls to visit the shops, galleries, boutiques, pubs and restaurants of the Old Town. Then take the "Funicular" back up to the top for a spectacular view of the river

The "Old Port" is spectacularly lit up with vast images and films projected onto the grain silos every summer at the Image Mill.

The Aquarium du Quebec with 10,000 species of marine life.

The National Museum of Fine Arts with 35,000 works from the 17th C. to present.

The magnificent waterfall in Quebec City's Parc de la Chute-Montmorency glistens under a thousand and one lights during the international Loto-Québec Firework Competition.

MONTREAL: Cities like Montréal don't happen very often. By day, it bubbles with Euro-charm and North American pizzazz. After dark, its nightlife sizzles with creativity and abandon. It's the city of a hundred nations, all lured by Montréal's intoxicating mix of Gallic tradition and joie de vivre rubbing up against North American innovation and optimism.

The Streets of Montreal are festivals all summer long. One can find many streets closed to traffic for entertainment and dining.

Picturesque Old Montreal is squeezed in between the skyscrapers of downtown and the mighty St Lawrence River. Its cobble-stoned streets, horse-drawn carriages and old world charm. You can never be bored by visiting the main square of Ville Vieux (Old Town). There is entertainment everyday and evening into the very late hours.

The Just for Laughs Festival takes its comedy very seriously. More than a million people attend shows featuring over 2000 performers from around the globe, performed in both English and French...

Montreal boasts some of the largest and finest markets in North America. A stroll through the Atwater, Jean Talon (Italian Ethnic neighborhood) or Maisonneuve markets perfectly evokes the unique blend of French and New World food that marks out this city.

Place des Arts has been the city's central entertainment complex, presenting performances of musical concerts, opera, dance, and theater in five halls. You may want to catch a show or concert, the prices are very reasonable.

NAME & TELEPHONE OF 1 FAMILY MEMBER IN CASE OF EMERGENCY:

Will you be taking "Travelers Insurance" ? _____ It is recommended.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Reservations/Deposits/Payments: A deposit of three hundred dollars ($300.00) is required at the time of booking. No reservation is confirmed until the deposit is received by the tour operator. The balance of the tour price is due and payable sixty (60) days prior to departure.

Minors And Infirm: Children under the age of 18 must be accompanied by a parent/guardian or a responsible adult deemed worthy by the parent/guardian. If a minor is traveling with any person other than parent/guardian then the responsible adult will provide the travel agent/tour operator and have in his/her possession a notarized letter from the parent/guardian giving that adult full permission to make decisions on their behalf and permission to room with the minor. No minor will be allowed to room alone without the parent/guardian or named responsible adult. Due to the physical demands of the tour and the inaccessibility of handicap facilities abroad, physically handicapped persons must contact the Tour Operator prior to registration.

Tour Price: The tour price in this brochure is based upon the U. S. currency vs. the Canadian Dollar at the time of printing, November 5, 2013. If changes in these rates occur, it may change the price accordingly. The tour price is based on booking a minimum of 30 paying passengers. A lesser amount could increase the price of the tour. Should the price of the tour change for any of the reasons mentioned above, the passenger will then have the right to cancel the reservation and receive a full refund of payment made to date, provided that written notice be received by Fratelli & Co. within 7 (seven) days of the notification of the price change. Otherwise, the cancellation policy written below prevails. Airport Taxes (if applicable) in are subject to change. No refund will be made if the passenger is dissatisfied with any of the accommodations, fails to use any of the accommodations included in the tour price, or must return home prior to completion of the tour.

Cancellations: Land and Air arrangements may be canceled and passenger may receive a full refund less one hundred ($100.) dollars cancellation fee if the cancellation is made no less than ninety (90) days prior to the scheduled departure date. If cancellation is made less than sixty (60) days prior to scheduled departure, there is no refund unless a suitable replacement passenger books the tour in his/her place. For these reasons we recommend you take Travel Insurance.

Travel Insurance: Health, accident, Trip Interruption/Cancellation and baggage insurance are NOT included and suggestions can be made available through your travel agent.

Sightseeing & Itinerary: Sightseeing is included as specified in the itinerary with English-speaking guides and customary entrance fees. The tour operator reserves the right to vary the sequence of the itinerary and/or reroute the order of cities, should circumstances arise.

Passports: A valid passport is required, and MUST be shown upon request to the travel agent/tour operator, tour leaders and any transportation personal and customs officials.

Responsibility: Fratelli & Co., your tour operator has arranged a tour/vacation/pilgrimage package which includes land transportation, hotel accommodations and food service. Neither the tour operator nor the organizer own, operate, manage, or control any hotel, bus company, railroad, cruise line, service provider, restaurant, airline transportation company, person or persons rendering any of the services, and/or accommodations offered in connection with this tour. The tour operator and/or tour organizer do not guaranty any passenger's safety who participates in the tour. Accordingly, the passenger understands that he or she has no claim against the tour operator or organizer for any delay, or other irregularity caused by a third party service provider, damage to or loss of property, injury to or death of the person due to any action or failure to act by the air carrier, bus carriers, private cars, livery carriers, railroad, ships, hotels, restaurants and any service providers in connection with this tour, strikes, war, or any acts of God. Under these circumstances, no portion of the tour price will be refunded. It is advisable that you cover any potential risks with insurance coverage.

Cancellation of Passenger's Rights: In an effort to make the tour pleasant for all, the tour operator reserves the right to: 1. cancel any reservation and refund the tour price, pursuant to the cancellation clause, of any passenger who acts irrational by words, actions and demeanor prior to the tour departure; 2. refuse further participation in the tour once the tour begins, with no refund given, to passengers who: act unruly, irrational, unduly argumentative, incite trouble among passengers, endanger the health and/or safety of the other passengers, tour operator, tour organizer, and/or tour escort, or if they become physically or emotionally disabled and create a burden that the remaining passengers are unwilling to accept. No tour passenger, tour operator, tour organizer, tour escort, will be obligated to assist any infirm, handicapped or injured passenger.

Inclusions: All hotel taxes, service charges, First Class Superior Hotels, Comprehensive sightseeing as per itinerary, English-speaking guides, all baggage handling and assistance abroad. Breakfasts, lunches and dinners as per itinerary.

Exclusions: Passport and visa fees, tips for tour escorts, drivers, guides, food service personal, hotel maids, phone calls, laundry services, and other items of a personal nature. Rates do NOT include beverages at meals unless specified in the itinerary. Rates do not include transportation to and from US airports or luggage handling in the United States.

Physical and Emotional Limitations: The tour operator cannot be held responsible for any part of the tour missed due to physical or emotional limitations. Anyone who cannot participate in an event will not receive a refund for any unused portion. Further, if anyone must stop or return to a hotel or motor-coach during a tour, and uses public transportation or taxis, it will be their responsibility to pay for the transportation.

Miscellaneous: Any Litigation concerning this tour shall be brought in the State of New Jersey. This agreement shall be construed according to New Jersey and Federal law. The tour operator shall not be responsible for any typographical errors or misprints. The tour operator reserves the right to substitute in its discretion any air, land and sea carrier, hotels, and service providers and itinerary.

I have read terms and conditions of the tour and accept them. I represent I am physically and emotionally able to meet the physical demands required by this tour.
