Meeting to be held at NYA Administration building at:
26 New York Ave
Smithtown, NY 11787
Room 222A

Elizabeth Stein, Special Education/UDL Instructional Coach & Mentor Teacher Program Coordinator at SCSD, will be offering an exciting workshop on:

Helping our Children with Executive Functioning:
Information, Tips, and Strategies You Can Do At Home!

This parent workshop will dig deeper into answering the questions:

What is executive functioning and what does it look like?

Why is it important to understand and support executive functioning skills?

How can parents nurture executive functioning skills that encourage children to self-regulate and become self-advocates?

Parents will:

- Develop a deeper understanding of executive functioning and how it affects their daily interactions with their children.
- Expand their repertoire of strategies to nurture and strengthen their child's executive functioning skills.
- Engage in roundtable discussions to guide personal connections, questions, and action steps!
