University of South Africa (UNISA)

Muslim Childhoods: Critical Issues in Child Rearing & Early Childhood Education

Thursday, 21 September | 4:30 p.m.
David Turpin Building, Room A110

Presented by The Department of Political Science, the Centre for Global Studies, and the Centre for Studies in Religion and Society

Dr. Hasina Banu Ebrahim is a leading African scholar in early childhood education, care and development (ECD) and author of Early Childhood Education in Muslim Preschools in South Africa: Rationales and Practice (2016). Given the importance of Islam in Africa and UNICEF's report that by 2050 approximately 40 percent of all children globally will live in Africa, the presentation is topical and timely. Dr. Ebrahim was recently appointed UNESCO Co-Chair in ECD (joining Dr. Alan Pence, CFGS, UVic).

ADDITIONAL PUBLIC LECTURES

Transforming Early Childhood Pedagogies
Through A Child-Oriented Focus In Plural Societies

Tuesday, 19 September | 6:30 p.m. | Bob Wright Centre, Room A104

South Africa's experiences in transforming pedagogies to address pluralism in early childhood care and education settings, has great relevance for Canada, as well as for Africa.

UVic's Public Lectures Series features accomplished individuals from a vast array of academic and research endeavours. As host of this lecture series, UVic continues its commitment to making a vital impact on people, places and the planet.
