From the Editor

First, I want to welcome new members Mike & Dee Dee Gassmann. Mike just purchased a very nice 1965 Monza Convertible and owns a 1968 500 coupe. They live in Peachtree City, GA.

I'd also like to apologize for getting this out so late. Just remember, we are meeting a week later than normal to have a picnic with Corvair Atlanta. It will be our last meeting before the fair, so try to attend to get the latest news firsthand.

If you have anything to submit for the newsletter, please email it to 66corsa@cox.net , or mail it to:

CHOO CHOO MEETING MINUTES AND OTHER UPDATES- LILLIAN LAW

The Choo Choo show was well attended by the Georgia Corvair Club Members. Choo Choo is a very small club but they put on a fun event. Chattanooga is a great place to visit. This year they had a special event, a wine and cheese party for the Ladies. It was fun and a good time to get better acquainted with new people.

The gardens are a great place to display the Corvairs. It was very exciting to see Mikey Birkinbine from the Atlanta Corvair club win a trophy. It was his first time showing his Corvair, it meant so much to him. We will have to join together to make sure this happens again at future events example " Springfest ".

The banquet food was surprisingly good. They always have unusual door prizes. If you haven't been put it on your list for next year. They always have nice people's choice trophies.

September Meeting:

Clay Grant will be cooking meat for our joint picnic. Clubs will purchase slaw. Jeannette will bring paper goods including table clothes. Please plan to bring a side dish or drinks.

Also, feel free to bring any parts you want to sell.

Fair Updates:

I have received our official invite with application for the Fair Parade. I have filled out and mailed back.

Please get your registrations to me as soon as possible. We need to get a count for the Saturday night dinner and Corvairs for the parade. Save a stamp and bring to picnic.

I have asked that new shirts be ready for me to deliver to the Fair event.

As usual we will need food for Friday night. Any volunteers or suggestions please let me know.
