Bulletin is dedicated to Joe & Betty Ewanish on their 62nd Anniversary

Tone 3 Troparion (Resurrection)

Let the heavens rejoice! Let the earth be glad!
For the Lord has shown strength with His arm.

He has trampled down death by death.

He has become the first born of the dead.

He has delivered us from the depths of hell,
and has granted to the world// great mercy.

Tone 3 Kontakion (Resurrection)

On this day You rose from the tomb, O Merciful One, leading us from the gates of death.

On this day Adam exults as Eve rejoices;

with the Prophets and Patriarchs// they unceasingly praise the divine majesty of Your power.

Tone 3 Prokeimenon of the Feast

Sing praises to our God, sing praises! / Sing praises to our King, sing praises!
V. Clap your hands, all peoples! Shout to God with loud songs of joy! (Ps. 46:1)

The Reading is from the First Letter of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Corinthians

Moreover, brethren, I declare to you the gospel which I preached to you, which also you received and in which you stand, by which also you are saved, if you hold fast that word which I preached to you – unless you believed in vain. For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the Scriptures, and that He was seen by Cephas, then by the twelve. After that He was seen by over five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain to the present, but some have fallen asleep. After that He was seen by James, then by all the apostles. Then last of all He was seen by me also, as by one born out of due time. For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all, yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. Therefore, whether it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

Alleluia and Verses Tone 1

V. In You, O Lord, have I hoped; let me never be put to shame! (Ps. 30:1a)

V. Be a God of protection for me, a house of refuge in order to save me! (Ps. 30:2b)

The reading is from the Gospel according to St. Matthew

Now behold, one came and said to Him, “Good Teacher, what good thing shall I do that I may have eternal life?” So He said to him, “Why do you call Me good? No one is good but One, that is, God. But if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments.” He said to Him, “Which ones?” Jesus said, “‘You shall not murder,’ ‘You shall not commit adultery,’ ‘You shall not steal,’ ‘You shall not bear false witness,’ ‘Honor your father and your mother,’ and, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’” “The young man said to Him, "All these things I have kept from my youth. What do I still lack?" Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell what you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me." But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions. Then Jesus said to His disciples, "Assuredly, I say to you that it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. And again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God. When His disciples heard it, they were greatly astonished, saying, "Who then can be saved?" But Jesus looked at them and said to them, "With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

62nd Anniversary of Joe and Betty

62nd Anniversary of Joe and Betty who united their lives in the Sacrament of Marriage at Sts. Peter & Paul Ukrainian Orthodox Church on September 3rd, 1960. Joe had been a President of the parish for many years and Betty was President for Saint Mary Sisterhood as well as a trustee for the Church. Joe retired from L.T.V. Steel in Warren Ohio and Betty retired from Youngstown Board of Education as a teacher's aide. Betty and Joe have Joseph Junior who is deceased and John - two wonderful sons God blessed them with. He blessed them with beautiful Church, with wonderful people, priest and family.

On this day we raise our prayers for Joe and Betty that the Lord may bless them with good health to continue glorify His Holy Name by serving our Church! Many more years!

Q&A: WHAT IS DIVINE LITURGY?

THE DIVINE LITURGY

The word liturgy means common work or common action. The Divine Liturgy is the common work of the Orthodox Church. It is the official action of the Church formally gathered together as the chosen People of God. The word church, as we remember, means a gathering or assembly of people specifically chosen and called apart to perform a particular task.

The Divine Liturgy is the common action of Orthodox Christians officially gathered to constitute the Orthodox Church. It is the action of the Church assembled by God in order to be together in one community to worship, to pray, to sing, to hear God's Word, to be instructed in God's commandments, to offer itself with thanksgiving in Christ to God the Father, and to have the living experience of God's eternal kingdom through communion with the same Christ Who is present in his people by the Holy Spirit

The Divine Liturgy has two main parts. The first part is the gathering, called the synaxis and is centered in the proclamation and meditation of the Word of God - Epistle and the Gospel.

The second part of the Divine Liturgy is the eucharistic sacrifice, the Eucharist - when Bread and Wine turn into the Body and Blood of Christ and the partaking of them by the faithful.

The Rich Young Man

When we read today's Gospel, we often focus on the fact that the young man did not give up all of his riches and follow Christ. In particular, we tend to focus on our Savior's words that "it is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of Heaven." We usually forget about the first part of this story.

The young man asks our Savior what must he do to inherit eternal life. Our Savior instructs the fellow that he should keep the commandments and lists them by name. The young man answers that he has kept all these commandments from his youth. Let's for a moment examine ourselves. With a clear conscience, are we able to say the same as the young man, that from our youth we have kept all of these commandments? Do we completely follow and keep all of the Ten Commandments which are the foundation of the moral life? Can we honestly put ourselves on the same level as this young man?

The young man persists in his questioning and asks if there is anything else he can do. Our Savior says yes, there is an additional path that he can take. If you would be perfect, you can give away all your riches, sell all your property and come and follow Me.

Today we would understand the second choice that our Savior offers the young man to be to choose the monastic life. There are two choices. The first choice is to live in what we call the “world,” have our secular employment, be married and have a family and follow the commandments of God, or give up everything: family, money and property and enter a monastery. There are no other choices. It is either the one or the other.

There is a third choice, but it is not unto salvation but unto condemnation, and that is to follow the path of evil and to serve the devil. Not everyone is required to become a monastic. This is a beautiful and wonderful way of life but it is not for everyone. However, everyone is required to keep the commandments of God and live the Gospel. For those of us living in the world who do not completely physically give up all of our money, property and families, nonetheless, Christ must hold the first place in our hearts.

Our Savior tells us that we must not be more attached to anything else in this life more than to Christ. “He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he who loves son or daughter more than me isn’t worthy of me” (Matt. 10:37).

Our Savior says, “Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also” (Matt. 6:21). In another place the Lord says, “You cannot serve God and mammon” (Matt. 6:24). Mammon is money and the greedy pursuit of gain. In life we are all called upon from time to time to deny ourselves for the sake of the other.

How often does the husband or wife deny their own desires in order to fulfill the desires of one’s spouse? How often do parents deny their own wants for the sake of their children? How often do we make unselfish personal sacrifices in order to serve and to help others: family, friends, those in need, those who ask for help, everyone around us?

Whether in the monastery or not in the monastery, we all have the opportunities to share what we have with others, whether it be money, possessions, our love, our care and our concern, our prayers for others and not only for ourselves.

All of us must be doing and sharing and serving others with the blessings and talents that God has given us, no matter what form these talents may take. It is a sin to bury your talent in the ground and do nothing with it. God calls upon Christians to be people of action and to live the Gospel, not only in word but in deed. This is the path that the Lord blesses us to follow, by which, with God’s help, we may attain salvation and eternal life. Amen.

Obituary

James Bobersky, 71, passed away Tuesday evening, August 30, 2022, at his home.

James was born February 24, 1951 in Youngstown, a son of the late Theodore and Irene Semchee Bobersky, and was a lifelong area resident.

Jimmy worked at Meshel - Masco Workshop for 50 years. He enjoyed fishing, going for walks, sitting by the campfire, taking boat rides, swimming, playing baseball, and volunteering his time with the American Legion Post 737 and church events. Most of all, Jimmy enjoyed spending time with his family. Jimmy was a very happy person and was always smiling. He enjoyed kidding around and making others laugh.

Jimmy was a member of Sts. Peter and Paul Ukrainian Orthodox Church.

He leaves to cherish his memory, two brothers, Alex (Noreen) Bobersky of Warren and Paul "Rocky" (Kim) Bobersky of Cortland; three sisters, Carol Magmore of Lake Tapps, WA., Mary Bobersky of Lake Milton and Kathy (Albert) Auden of Lake Milton, and nieces and nephews, Joshua and James Auden, Austin and Aidan Young, Molly Halliday and Kelli Bobersky.

Jimmy will be sadly missed by all who knew and loved him. Besides his parents, a nephew, Justin Ronald Auden, preceded Jimmy in death.
