Gossamer Wood Trail Map Legend

Welcome to Gossamer Wood, a sacred Native American site with areas for meditation, healing, and appreciating nature. Experience Gossamer Wood's 9 earth energy vortexes. Learn why over 2,000,000 people travel annually to Sedona, Arizona each year.

Look for flat stones, stone circles, and large natural rock formations that mark power spots. We have placed white flags near some areas that feel especially strong to us. Be open to other areas that may be "calling you", as each person feels the energy differently.

Map Area Notes:

- Welcome Circle: A welcome area for a prayer or blessing before entering this sacred site. The grounding vortex is powerful and a great way to start meditating and exploring.
- Women's Healing Circle: This area nourishes your feminine side. Large rocks were strategically placed long ago: a special part of Mother Earth. Don't stay too long or you may never want to leave. This vortex is magnetic, or feminine, in nature.
- The Bower: You never know what will happen in this natural room-like shelter.
- Spirit Keepers: A large stone circle that has powerful fields-of-consciousness (FOC) with strong imprints that gives it the sweetest vibe and can elevate your consciousness. A powerful vortex that's electric, or masculine, in nature.
- Feeds the Soul, Divine Healing, Angelic Touch, Life's Lessons, & Touching the Soul vortexes: These ancient areas contain many ceremonial Manatou stones and powerful vortexes and are wonderful to explore. The Angelic Touch area contained a cistern of holy spring water for Native American healing for. A new water dome is forming underground that hopefully will break through the surface soon. There are powerful imprints left long ago from prayer and ceremony that can send you on a mystical journey. Don't miss the areas with 2 flags!
- Connecting Meditation: This area connects you to what you need. Each experience is different, whether it's connecting with Mother Earth or activating your 3rd eye. An enveloping experience.
- Pyramid of Time: Explore your past, this life, or one long ago. This area is unusual as it may distort time for you. Sitting under a pyramid at about 1/3 of the height greatly enhances the earth energy. It also allows visualizing past life experiences with practice.
- Family Area: A wonderful vortex of both grounding and feminine energy. Learn why families gathered here. Feel the joy, love, and playfulness.
- Tranquility: As the name implies.
- Questions: Have a question? You might get an answer on your mind's "whiteboard".
- Bliss: Three stone circles mark powerful Earth energies. One of the 1st areas discovered by Bill.
- Grounding Stations: Areas along the way to pause and get grounded. The vortex energy can send you to heights. You may forget to touch the ground.
- Meditation Areas: Wonderful and private healing and meditation areas.
